

Mastering the In-Basket Exercise

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This seminar will focus on making the Right Decisions when tackling issues in the In-Basket Exercise. Understanding Compliance with Departmental Rules, Regulations, Policies, Procedures and laws of the Commonwealth when everyday ethical and moral conflicts are present is essential. It will focus on several key factors which often prevent candidates from making the right choice in these situations and will provide insight into how to successfully work through them. Seminar participants will review priority choices through the use of realistic job scenarios which require difficult decision-making analysis. Each decision will be reviewed, evaluated and analyzed in class.

TOPICS TO BE DISCUSSED

- >> Compliance with policies, procedures, rules and regulations when making decisions
- >> The leadership "Perspective"
- >> How the public trust impacts leadership decisions
- >> What makes an item a high priority?
- >> Factors that impact the "Actions Required" by the candidate
- >> Understanding and successfully completing the required task

Encyclopedia of Police Science Jack Raymond Greene, 2006-10-23. In 1996, Garland published the second edition of the Encyclopedia of Police Science, edited by the late William G. Bailey. The work covered all the major sectors of policing in the US. Since then, much research has been done on policing issues, and there have been significant changes in techniques and in the American police system. Technological advances have refined and generated methods of investigation. Political events such as the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, in the United States have created new policing needs while affecting public opinion about law enforcement. These developments appear in the third, expanded edition of the Encyclopedia of Police Science. 380 entries examine the theoretical and practical aspects of law enforcement, discussing past and present practices. The added coverage makes the Encyclopedia more comprehensive, with a greater focus on today's policing issues. Also added are themes such as accountability, the culture of police, and the legal framework that affects police decision. New topics discuss recent issues such as Internet and crime, international terrorism, airport safety, or racial profiling. Entries are contributed by scholars as well as experts working in police departments, crime labs, and various fields of policing.
