Urban Regeneration In Europe:

Urban Regeneration in Europe Chris Couch, Charles Fraser, Susan Percy, 2008-04-15 This book provides a comparative account of the process of urban regeneration and examines the factors influencing these processes as well as the consequences of their implementation Through a mixture of theoretical discussion and a series of case studies a thorough examination is made of the extent to which these different European old industrial conurbations are facing similar problems

Cultural Policy and Urban Regeneration Franco Bianchini, Michael Parkinson, 1993 The material in this book is based upon an academic conference held in Liverpool in 1990 which explored West European urban development and strategies by looking at commissioned studies of cities in six EC countries Britain The Netherlands France Spain Germany and Italy

Urban Regeneration in Europe Uwe Altrock, Detlef Kurth, 2024-11-25 We understand urban regeneration as all efforts managed funded or at least guided to some extent by public authorities that aim at improving stabilizing or revitalizing existing neighborhoods This comprises area based strategies improvements of public infrastructure and interventions into the physical structure of the built environment Their strategies may be redevelopment renewal careful regeneration socially integrative management and others Those efforts aim at dealing with reurbanization trends recently challenged by new suburbanization due to overheated development sharp increases in house prices and more and more professionals working from home The major objective of the book is to give an overview of the variety of approaches applied in European countries Therefore it takes a particular look at the systems of urban regeneration that build upon an interplay of specific legal frameworks policies public funding schemes physical planning tools partnerships and governance arrangements applied with the intention of solving urban problems For this purpose chapters present case studies of those national or regional systems or outstanding examples of long term efforts by major cities

Community Based Urban Regeneration in Europe CECOP (Committee), 1996

European Port Cities and Urban Regeneration Enrico Tommarchi, 2022-07-29 Culture and event led regeneration have been catalysts for the transformation of redundant urban port areas and for the reframing of the image of many port cities which notably feature among mega event bidding and host cities However there is little understanding of the impacts of these processes on port city relationships as well as of how port city cultures shape mega events and the related regeneration strategies The book examines the underexplored mutual links between on the one hand urban and socio economic regeneration driven by cultural and sporting mega events and on the other hand the spatial political and symbolic ties between cities and their ports By adopting a cross national comparative perspective with in depth case studies Hull Rotterdam Genoa and Valencia and examples from other port cities across the world where mega events were held the book engages with issues such as the tension between port and cultural uses reactions and opposition to mega events in port cities clashing urban imaginaries drawing on port activity and culture the role of port authorities and companies in the city s cultural life the spectacularisation and commodification of local maritime culture and heritage processes of cultural demaritimisation and remaritimisation of port cities The book is therefore a contribution towards the bridging of port city and mega event studies and it provides insights for port city policy makers and mega event promoters drawing from a range of international experiences The book also shows how societal and political change in the current ontologically insecure times may undermine the very paradigm of culture and event led regeneration in the years to come Social Exclusion and Inner City Europe S. Mangan, 2004-05-25 The searches by European Union major states for joined up approaches to inner city regeneration are examined thematically through a focus on policy evolution since the mid 1970s Key issues addressed include the physical social employment and urban security agenda The product of long term research drawing on extensive qualitative and quantitative sources at national level backed by in depth case study investigation of five large cities the book assesses how contemporary urban rejuvenation is being regulated including the increasing contribution of the European Union The Routledge Companion to Urban Regeneration Michael E. Leary, John McCarthy, 2013-10-30 In the past decade urban regeneration policy makers and practitioners have faced a number of difficult challenges such as sustainability budgetary constraints demands for community involvement and rapid urbanization in the Global South Urban regeneration remains a high profile and important field of government led intervention and policy and practice continue to adapt to the fresh challenges and opportunities of the 21st century as well as confronting long standing intractable urban problems and dilemmas This Companion provides cutting edge critical review and synthesis of recent conceptual policy and practical developments within the field With contributions from 70 international experts within the field it explores the meaning of urban regeneration in differing national contexts asking questions and providing informed discussion and analyses to illuminate how an apparently disparate field of research policy and practice can be rendered coherent drawing out common themes and significant differences The Companion is divided into six sections exploring globalization and neo liberal perspectives on urban regeneration emerging reconceptualizations of regeneration public infrastructure and public space housing and cosmopolitan communities community centred regeneration and culture led regeneration The concluding chapter considers the future of urban regeneration and proposes a nine point research agenda This Companion assembles a diversity of approaches and insights in one comprehensive volume to provide a state of the art review of the field It is a valuable resource for both advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students in Urban Planning Built Environment Urban Studies and Urban Regeneration as well as academics practitioners and politicians Leadership and urban regeneration Dennis Judd, Michael Parkinson, 1990 Urban Renewal in European Countries Leo Grebler, 2017-01-30 This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 1 100 titles from Penn Press s distinguished backlist from 1899 1999 that had fallen out of print Spanning an entire century the Anniversary Collection offers peer reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas City Visions Frank Gaffikin, Mike Morrissey, 1999 Covering a range of North American and European cities

but focusing on Belfast's social economic and political developments this collection considers the role of long term urban planning in the development of cities The major cities of the West are characterised by division uneven development and unequal distribution of jobs In Belfast these general Western urban characteristics are extended and heightened by association with a long standing political crisis and low intensity conflict Covering a range of North American and European cities but focusing on Belfast's social economic and political developments this collection considers the role of long term urban planning in the development of cities The authors integrate global debates on urban development and summarise contemporary theories on cities and their future An assortment of interventions and delivery mechanisms are considered and among the key topics covered are urban economies and social exclusion the planning of city regions the sustainable city urban regeneration the role of culture in remaking cities and the future governance of cities By viewing the subject from a local perspective as well as in an international context the authors provide a stimulating critique which will guide policy makers planners students and others concerned with urban regeneration

Urban Regeneration and Social Sustainability Andrea Colantonio, Tim Dixon, 2011-02-02 Urban regeneration is a key focus for public policy throughout Europe This book examines social sustainability and analyses its meaning The authors offer a comprehensive European perspective to identify best practices in sustainable urban regeneration in five major cities in Spain Italy Netherlands Germany and the UK This authoritative overview of the scholarly literature makes the book essential reading for researchers and post graduate students in sustainable development real estate geography urban studies and urban planning as well as consultants and policy advisors in urban regeneration and the built environment

Urban Change and Regional Development at the Margins of Europe Ignazio Vinci, Paula Russell, 2022-07-28 Since the beginning of the 1990s regions and urban areas have become a primary target of EU Cohesion Policy For a number of European cities especially in the less developed regions this has resulted in a unique opportunity for the implementation of extensive development projects as well as delivering innovations in urban policy and local governance Through the detailed observation of planning processes which took place in four European cities Porto PT Malaga ES Palermo IT and Thessaloniki EL this book explores the different ways that EU intervention can affect the policy process locally from the regeneration of decayed neighbourhoods and the creation of key services for improving the quality of life to the establishment of new governance relations and increasing the institutional capacity in local government The book also provides a critical reflection on the impact of EU urban policy in reducing regional disparities and the extent to which Cohesion Policy has helped cities to open new pathways for local development With a special focus on the EU's marginal regions this book is a guide to understanding how EU policy has affected urban change and local development across Europe The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Urban Research Practice
