Words in Dictionaries and History Olga Timofeeva, Tanja Säily, 2011 Bringing together fifteen articles by scholars in Europe and North America this collection aims to represent and advance studies in historical lexis It highlights the significance of the understanding of dictionary making and language making as important socio cultural phenomena With its general focus on England and English the book investigates the reception and development of historical and modern English vocabulary and culture in different periods social and professional strata geographical varieties of English and other national cultures The volume is based on individual meta lexicographical etymological lexicosemantic and corpus studies representing two large areas of research the first part focuses on the history of dictionaries analysing them in diachrony from the first professional dictionaries of the Baroque period via Enlightenment and Romanticism to exploring the possibilities of the new online lexicographical publications and the second part looks at the interfaces between etymology semantic development and word formation on the one hand and changes in society and culture on the other Global English Slang Julie Coleman, 2014-01-10 Global English Slang brings together nineteen key international experts and provides a timely and essential overview of English slang around the world today The book illustrates the application of a range of different methodologies to the study of slang and demonstrates the interconnection between the different sub fields of linguistics A key argument throughout is that slang is a function played by specific words or phrases rather than a characteristic inherent in the words themselves what is slang in one context is not slang in another The volume also challenges received wisdom on the nature of slang that it is short lived and that slang is restricted to verbal language With an introduction by editor Julie Coleman the topics covered range from Inner City New York slang and Hip Hop Slang to UK student slang and slang in Scotland Authors also explore slang in Jamaica Australia New Zealand India and Hong Kong and the influence of English slang on Norwegian Italian and Japanese A final section looks at slang and new media including online slang usage and the possibilities offered by the internet to document verbal and gestural slang Global English Slang is an essential reference for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers working in the areas of lexicology slang and World Englishes

Tradition in the Twenty-First Century Trevor J. Blank,Robert Glenn Howard,2013-05-15 In Tradition in the Twenty First Century eight diverse contributors explore the role of tradition in contemporary folkloristics For more than a century folklorists have been interested in locating sources of tradition and accounting for the conceptual boundaries of tradition but in the modern era expanded means of communication research and travel along with globalized cultural and economic interdependence have complicated these pursuits Tradition is thoroughly embedded in both modern life and at the center of folklore studies and a modern understanding of tradition cannot be fully realized without a thoughtful consideration of the past's role in shaping the present Emphasizing how tradition adapts survives thrives and either mutates or remains stable in today's modern world the contributors pay specific attention to how traditions now resist or expedite dissemination and adoption by individuals and communities This complex and intimate portrayal of tradition in the twenty first century offers a comprehensive overview of the folkloristic and popular conceptualizations of tradition from the past to present and presents a thoughtful assessment and projection of how tradition will fare in years to come The book will be useful to advanced undergraduate or graduate courses in folklore and will contribute significantly to the scholarly literature on tradition within the folklore discipline Additional Contributors Simon Bronner Stephen Olbrys Gencarella Merrill Kaplan Lynne S McNeill Elliott Oring Casey R Schmitt and Tok Thompson
