Rajender Reddy, 2016-01-07 There are over 180 million people with chronic HCV infection worldwide with between 2.7 and 3.9 million in the United States Hepatitis C most significantly affects Asia and Africa with rates up to 15% in countries such as Egypt and up to 30% in certain regions such as Punjab Pakistan Hepatitis C places a significant burden on the public health infrastructure as it remains the leading cause of chronic liver disease accounting for 50 75% of primary liver cancers and is responsible for 30% of all liver transplantations It is estimated to have cost the United States 5 5 billion in 1997 comparable to the national cost of asthma 5 8 billion in 1994 This number is only expected to grow as the current HCV population ages increasing overall rates of compensated cirrhosis end stage liver disease The evolution of directly acting anti virals has ushered in a new era for chronic hepatitis C Ongoing drug development strategy has involved targeting several replication steps of the virus and the hope is to see all oral therapies by late 2014 or early 2015 Thus we are at an exciting cross roads with regard to new information and challenges with HCV rising disease burden with associated high costs the challenges globally and in multiple patient populations and the impending availability of effective and well tolerated treatments Therefore there is a need to commission an exclusive issue of GCNA for HCV

Strengthening the Responsibility to Protect Richard Illingworth, 2023-11-02 This book provides a systematic analysis of reform measures aimed at strengthening the implementation of the Responsibility to Protect R2P doctrine utilising a cosmopolitan lens In 2005 member states of the United Nations UN accepted a Responsibility to Protect against four mass atrocity crimes genocide crimes against humanity war crimes and ethnic cleansing Despite this commitment mass atrocities remain a pervasive aspect of the international landscape In addressing R2P reform the book utilises a transitional cosmopolitan lens The aim of this transitional cosmopolitan approach is to promote incremental progress towards solving moral problems by operating within particular contexts and practical barriers to change Three areas for reform are explored the UN Security Council P5 s power of veto to prevent the veto obstructing timely and decisive R2P response action the powers of the UN General Assembly as an alternative means for responding to mass atrocity situations and the establishment of an R2P Commission to hold states accountable for their R2P commitments These are not advocated as the definitive areas for R2P reform However each of the recommendations made can contribute at least some positive progress towards a more cosmopolitan application of the R2P that would help in curbing mass atrocity and improving the protection of fundamental human rights This book will be of much interest to students of the Responsibility to Protect genocide humanitarian protection and International Relations in general
