Mary's utterly unremarkable childhood was everything she didn't want, hailing from a deeply loving yet overprotective Italian family in an all Jewish enclave on Long Island. All she wanted was to fit in, be Jewish, and become famous, specifically a cast member on Saturday Night Live. With an easy, natural storytelling sensibility, Mary shares her journey from a cosseted childhood home to the stage and finally to the party, accidentally landing what she now refers to as the breakthrough role of a lifetime: catering to a glittery list of stars she once hoped to be part of herself. Fresh, personal, and full of Mary's humorous self-deprecating and can-do attitude against all odds, you'll want to see where each shiny silver tray of hors d'oeuvres takes her next. You never know when the humble hot dog will be a crucial ingredient in the recipe for success in building a business or simply making life more delicious.
