Running Ronnie O'Sullivan, 2013-10-10 World Snooker Champion Ronnie O'Sullivan's frank and honest account of his astonishingly dramatic life I used to rely on drugs and alcohol to keep me going but now I've got the healthiest addiction going running This book explains how running has helped me to fight my demons my addictive personality depression my dad's murder conviction the painful break up with the mother of my children and allowed me to win five World Snooker Championships It is also about all of the great things in my life my kids snooker my dad's release from prison great mates who have helped me and the psychiatrist Dr Steve Peters who has taught me how not to run away when things get tough Finally it's about what it's like to get the buzz from running from snooker from life Because when it comes down to it everyone needs something to drive them on

Baba Padmanji Deepra Dandekar, 2020-12-23 This book is a critical biography of Baba Padmanji 1831-1906 a firebrand native Christian missionary ideologue and litterateur from 19th century Bombay Presidency Though Padmanji was well known and a very influential figure among Christian converts his contributions have received inadequate attention from the perspective of social reform an intellectual domain dominated by offshoots of the Brahmo Samaj movement like the Prarthana Samaj in Bombay This book constitutes an in-depth analysis of Padmanji's relationships with questions of reform education modernity feminism and religion that had wide-ranging repercussions on the intellectual horizon of 19th century India It presents Padmanji's integrated writing persona and identity as a revolutionary pathfinder of his times who amalgamated and blended vernacular ideas of Christianity together with early feminism modernity and incipient nationalism Drawing on a variety of primary and secondary sources this unique book will be of great interest for area studies scholars especially Maharashtra and to researchers of modern India engaged with the history of colonialism and missions religion global Christianity South Asian intellectual history and literature

Oceanic Archives, Indigenous Epistemologies, and Transpacific American Studies Yuan Shu, Otto Heim, Kendall Johnson, 2019-10-22 The field of transnational American studies is going through a paradigm shift from the transatlantic to the transpacific This volume demonstrates a critical method of engaging the Asian Pacific the chapters present alternative narratives that negotiate American dominance and exceptionalism by analyzing the experiences of Asians and Pacific Islanders from the vast region including those from the Philippines Vietnam Indonesia Hawaii Guam and other archipelagos Contributors make use of materials from oceanic archives retrieving what has seemingly been lost forgotten or downplayed inside and outside state-bound archives state legal preoccupations and state prioritized projects The result is the recovery of indigenous epistemologies which enables scholars to go beyond US-based sources and legitimates third-world knowledge production and dissemination Surprising findings and unexpected perspectives abound in this work Minnan traders from southern China are identified as the agents who connected the Indian Ocean with the Pacific making the Manila Galleon trade in the sixteenth century the first completely global commercial enterprise The Chamorro poetry of Guam gives a view of America from beyond its national borders and articulates the cultural pride of the Chamorro against US colonialism and imperialism The continuing distortion of indigenous claims to the sovereignty of Hawaii is analyzed through a reading of the most widely circulated English translation of the creation myth Kumulipo There is also a critique of the Korean involvement in the American War in Vietnam which was informed and shaped by Korean economy and politics in a global context By investigating the transpacific as moments of military cultural and geopolitical contentions this timely collection charts the reach and possibilities of the latest developments in the most dynamic form of transnational American studies This collection offers a well organized and intellectually coherent series of essays addressing issues of American imperialism in Oceania and the Pacific region Covering history politics and literary culture in equal measure the essays are theoretically well informed and their focus on Indigenous cultures speaks to the current scholarly interest in the ways in which Indigenous communities can be understood within a global context Paul Giles University of Sydney This terrific volume offers the latest mapping of that complex terrain known as the transpacific Timely and capacious the essays here from an all star cast of international scholars offer the latest thinking on the oceanic dimensions of global modernity Essential reading for anyone interested in the current Asian turn in American Studies Asian American Studies and Transpacific Studies Steven Yao Hamilton College
