

PROJECT – Students will have two days in the Computer Lab to do research and produce a final product.

1. Write a compare-and-contrast essay of the French Revolution and the American Revolution.
2. Create or find three visuals for your essays.
3. Create a chart listing the similarities and differences.
4. BONUS POINTS OPTIONAL – Create a chart of advantages and disadvantages of European Unity (you will need to find this information on your own – don't attempt to do this unless you are confident that you have an "A" for items 1,2 & 3)

Testing in the Language Classroom White, Eddy, Delaney, Thomas, 2018-11-23 The evaluation of student performance and knowledge is a critical element of an educator's job as well as an essential step in the learning process for students. The quality and effectiveness of the evaluations given by educators are impacted by their ability to create and use reliable and valuable evaluations to facilitate and communicate student learning. The Handbook of Research on Assessment Literacy and Teacher-Made Testing in the Language Classroom is an essential reference source that discusses effective language assessment and educator roles in evaluation design. Featuring research on topics such as course learning outcomes, learning analytics, and teacher collaboration, this book is ideally designed for educators, administrative officials, linguists, academicians, researchers, and education students seeking coverage on an educator's role in evaluation design and analyses of evaluation methods and outcomes.

The Focus Factor James A. Bellanca, 2015-04-25 Featuring practical how-to classroom examples, this teacher-friendly introduction examines the importance of an essential set of thinking skills that supports the Common Core State Standards and future success for students in 21st-century life, school, and work. Starting with cognitive psychologist Reuven Feuerstein's pioneering Theory of Mediated Learning, the author provides a rationale for teaching skills that focuses on deeper learning and connects to CCSSs. These include distinguishing what is important from what is not, thinking critically and creatively, sorting and searching information, connecting ideas, and problem solving. Each chapter introduces the what, the why, and the how to do it for explicit intentional incorporation of specific content-crossing competencies. The text is designed to make it easy for teachers to integrate the development of important cognitive functions into their daily lessons.
