Philadelphia Police Nelson Denny Test:

One Bad Mother Megan Williams, 2024-09-03 After her six year old daughter puts a hammer through a wall Megan Williams decides to abandon a career as an academic and become a police officer It s not lost on her that she may have applied to the Police Academy to escape the realities of mothering twins born via IVF at twenty nine weeks As the twins grow and test her endlessly she feels she is failing She needs a win During a grueling application process Megan measures herself against the other candidates and confronts the normative notions of what it is to be a good mother The paralyzing fear that she is a bad mother looms large in her head as does the real possibility that she might not make the cut at the Academy With its intertwined narratives of police recruitment and motherhood the memoir provides an unflinching journalistic view of big city law enforcement set atop a personal journey during which Megan learns gratitude and makes peace with a motherhood far different from the dream sold to her by our culture Psychological Services for Law Enforcement Theodore H.
