Handbook of BRICS and Emerging Economies PB Anand, Shailaja Fennell, Flavio Comim, 2020-12-16 Ever since Jim O'Neill at Goldman Sachs coined the term BRICS in 2001 there have been many different assessments of these major emerging economies with some even proclaiming that the promise of the BRICS comprising Brazil Russia India China and South Africa is over However the so called arranged marriage still seems to be working well with the club having become a formal international forum with summit declarations ministerial meetings and numerous BRICS wide fora Is this euphoria misplaced Is there a BRICS model of economic and human development Are inequalities increasing and is this the denouncement of the economic successes Are geo political tensions rising between these nations During the post COVID 19 situation the importance of bilateral and multilateral co operation mechanisms and institutions is becoming clear This book focuses on one such emerging co operation mechanism of BRICS but also more widely on those five countries and other similar economies As a global depression looms large global economic recovery depends on the performance of not only its largest economies but also many other important and significant economies within the so called G20 group Even prior to the COVID 19 outbreak multilateral institutions have been under considerable strain as with the relationship between the United States of America and China and risks to global economic recovery appear very real This book brings together multi disciplinary perspectives from over sixty scholars and it presents a comprehensive and deep dive into the BRICS and emerging economies and into an understanding the political economic and social contexts that can help in designing approaches for recovery and regaining the last momentum in the journey towards the Sustainable Development Goals The Politics of Education in Developing Countries Samuel Hickey,Naomi Hossain,2019 This book focuses on how politics shapes the capacity and commitment of elites to tackle the learning crisis in six developing countries It deploys a new conceptual framework to show how the type of political settlement shaptes the level of elite commitment and state capacity to improving learning outcomes Mills: Who Counts ,2023-04-13 Since the 1990s global academic publishing has been transformed by digitisation consolidation and the rise of the internet The data produced by commercially owned citation indexes increasingly defines legitimate academic knowledge Publication in prestigious high impact journals can be traded for academic promotion tenure and job security African researchers and publishers labour in the shadows of a global knowledge system dominated by Northern journals and by global publishing conglomerates This book goes beyond the numbers It shows how the Ghanaian academy is being transformed by this bibliometric economy It offers a rich account of the voices and perspectives of Ghanaian academics and African journal publishers How where and when are Ghana s researchers disseminating their work and what do these experiences reveal about an unequal global science system Is there pressure to publish in reputable international journals What role do supervisors collaborators and mentors play And how do academics manage in conditions of scarcity Health Promotion in Health Care - Vital Theories and Research Gørill Haugan,Monica Eriksson,2021-03-11 This open access textbook represents a vital contribution to global health education offering insights into health promotion as part of patient care for bachelor s and master s students in health care nurses occupational therapists physiotherapists radiotherapists social care workers etc as well as health care professionals and providing an overview of the field of health science and health promotion for PhD students and researchers Written by leading experts from seven countries in Europe America Africa and Asia it first discusses the theory of health promotion and vital concepts It then presents updated evidence based health promotion approaches in different populations people with chronic diseases cancer heart failure dementia mental disorders long term ICU patients elderly individuals families with newborn babies palliative care patients and examines different health promotion approaches integrated into primary care services This edited scientific anthology provides much needed knowledge translating research into guidelines for practice Today s medical approaches are highly developed however patients are human beings with a wholeness of body mind spirit As such providing high quality and effective health care requires a holistic physical psychological social spiritual model of health care is required A great number of patients both in hospitals and in primary health care suffer from the lack of a holistic oriented health approach Their condition is treated but they feel scared helpless and lonely Health promotion focuses on improving people s health in spite of illnesses Accordingly health care that supports promotes patients health by identifying their health resources will result in better patient outcomes shorter hospital stays less re hospitalization being better able to cope at home and improved well being which in turn lead to lower health care costs This scientific anthology is the first of its kind in that it connects health promotion with the salutogenic theory of health throughout the chapters the authors here expand the understanding of health promotion beyond health protection and disease prevention The book focuses on describing and explaining salutogenesis as an umbrella concept not only as the key concept of sense of coherence
