SAVE THIS MANUAL AND THE CODE LISTS

Remote controls can sometimes lose their programming when you change the batteries. Make sure you keep the manual and code list in a safe place so that you can reprogram the remote if you need to.

Tip: This remote is already programmed to control most RCA products. For all the DVD players and satellite receivers, just press the corresponding key—RECORD for a DVD player, TV for a satellite, SAT/CBL for a satellite receiver.

Step 1: Install your batteries

This universal remote requires two AA alkaline batteries.

Step 2: Program

To use this universal remote system, first you must get the codes for the device you want to control. There are four ways you can program your device:

- The Auto Code Search method for the device you want to control. This method is the easiest, but it will search for all codes for the device you want to control.
- The Brand Code Search method for the device you want to control. This method is the easiest, but it will search for all codes for the device you want to control.
- The Manual Code Search method for the device you want to control. This method is the easiest, but it will search for all codes for the device you want to control.

The Manual Code Search method is the easiest, but it will search for all codes for the device you want to control.

Auto Code Search

The Auto Code Search method is the easiest, but it will search for all codes for the device you want to control.

NOTE: Each device has a unique code. To find the code for your device, press the GO BACK key on the remote control. The code will be displayed on the LCD screen.
