4 (exceeds expectations)	3 (fully meets expectations)	2 (satisfactorily meets expectations)	1 (does not meet expectations)
Exemplary character sketches display the following characteristics: • The character comes alive through the writer's word. • Sensory details are used to develop the description. • An overall impression of the person is created through the use of precise nouns and vivid verbs. • Part of each characteristic is offered through paraphrasing, quoting, or an example in the writer's own life or the real world as an effective illustration of the character. • Sketch is carefully well organized, following the paragraph form. • A variety of sentence structures are used effectively. • Only a few minor errors in usage and mechanics occur.	Capable character sketches display the following characteristics: • Character is described well. • Some sensory details are used. • An overall impression of the person is created, but there is little evidence of precise nouns and vivid verbs. • Part is offered for most characteristics. • The organizational structure is generally intact. • A variety of sentence structures are used. • Some errors in usage and mechanics occur.	Developing character sketches display the following characteristics: • The total picture of the person described in the sketch is somewhat incomplete; the reader is left wondering what the person is. • Few sensory details are used. • Only a limited overall impression of the person is created. • Little part is offered for characteristics. • Some organizational structure is apparent, but there are some gaps. • Sketch displays somewhat of simple sentence structure, but offers little variety. • Several errors in usage and mechanics do not detract from clarity and meaning.	Limited time-space character sketches display the following characteristics: • Reader has trouble picturing the person described. • Few, if any, sensory details are used. • Little or no overall impression is created. • Very little or no part is provided for characteristics. • Organization is lacking and does not follow paragraph form. • Significant errors in usage, mechanics and sentence structure detract from clarity and meaning.
