Rush Pandemic Sorrow English Edition:

Psychosocial Perspectives on Community Responses to Covid-19 Emma O'Dwyer, Luiz Gustavo Silva Souza, 2022-12-29

This highly topical edited book documents the community response to Covid 19 across national contexts exploring the widespread development and mobilisation of community initiatives and groups. It provides rich analysis of case studies from the Global North and South including South Africa, the USA, India, China, Mexico, Brazil, Italy, Australia, the UK, Turkey, and Argentina. The Covid 19 pandemic motivated a significant community response globally with the widespread development and mobilisation of bottom up community initiatives and groups. These community responses were an essential yet often unseen and unrecognised means by which people survived the pandemic. This book asks questions such as how were community responses to Covid 19 shaped by national cultural and political processes and phenomena, how did community responses to Covid 19 interact with public policies on health, education and social welfare, and what are the likely political implications of the community response to Covid 19. Discussing the provision of abortion care in Latin America, the support to marginalized communities in Kolkata, and the mobilisation of carnival krewes in New Orleans to give a few examples, the text adopts and develops a novel socio-cultural psychological approach, weaving together contributions from scholars working in diverse disciplinary fields. The text highlights the importance of integrating multiple levels of analysis, including psychological, sociological, and political, ideological, to investigate how communities respond to crises such as the Covid 19 pandemic and how they can plan for and manage future crises. This is essential reading for academics and students in psychology and the social sciences, as well as policy makers, charities, and third sector organisations.

Between Pandemonium and Pandemethics Dorothea Erbele-Küster, Volker Küster, 2022-07-26. This volume brings together contextual and intercultural responses to the Covid 19 Pandemic from theological and interreligious perspectives. It searches for models of interpretation provided by religious traditions and their sacred texts and the ethical guidance religious communities offer for coping with the pandemic. The authors explore imaginative ways that transcend the New Normal towards a Pantopia that does not return to the pitfalls of the Old Normal but tackles the injustices that the virus has revealed in the current Pandemonium. They strive to enable their readers to react to the global pandemic and its aftermath, theologically informed by intercultural and interreligious perspectives. Zwischen Pandemonium und Pandemie Antworten auf Covid 19 in Theologie und Religion.
