

Creative Writing Rubric

Points	Characterization	Imagery	Plot	Length	Grammar	Dialogue
1	Characters are under-developed and don't have an adequate back-ground, personality, or motivation. They don't feel like real people at all.	The writer does not try to employ imagery at all. The effort is made to create a sensory experience for the reader.	The writer has not tried to create a cohesive plot of any kind. There is no structure, and it is not engaging or original.	The story is less than 100 words.	There are more than 10 errors in punctuation capitalization commas apostrophe usage word choice	Dialogue is minimal and stiff. There is no sense of tension, conflict, or irony between characters, and overly formal speech.
2	Characterization is shaky. The characters neither are vivid, they have no consistent personality traits, and there is no sense of a personal history.	The writer's structure and story imagery is shaky. The reader does not get a full sensory picture of what is happening in the story.	The writer has crafted a story with a central plot that lacks one or more of the following: conflict, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution. The plot is unoriginal, unengaging, and doesn't make much sense.	The story is 100-249 words long.	There are 10-12 errors in punctuation capitalization commas apostrophe usage word choice	Dialogue between characters feels stiff and unnatural. There is too much of one or more of the following: repetition, cliché, formal, or unnatural speech.
3	Some attempt was made to create a back-ground, personality, and motivation, but the characters don't feel real. The characterization is shaky.	An adequate attempt was made to describe the world of the story. The writer's sensory picture is shaky, but attempts to emphasize, not describe the entire tale.	The writer has crafted a story with a central plot that lacks one or more of the following: conflict, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution. The plot makes sense, but isn't very original or engaging.	The story is at least 250-499 words long.	There are 1-8 errors in punctuation capitalization commas apostrophe usage word choice	Dialogue between characters feels stiff and unnatural. There is too much of one or two of the following: repetition, cliché, formal, or unnatural speech.

Rubrics For Creative Writing:

An English Teacher's Guide to Performance Tasks & Rubrics Amy Benjamin, 2000 First Published in 2000
Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company A Collection of Performance Tasks and Rubrics Deborah Blaz, 2001 First Published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Write Start: Creative Writing Carol Perkins, 1998-01-01 Write Start helps students prepare for the writing portion of standardized tests Creative Writing Creative writing prompts ranging from holidays to relationships to world problems The Influence of Rubrics on High School Students' Creative Writing Skills Roberta A. Burke, 2003 Assessment Rubrics Decoded Kelvin Heng Kiat Tan, 2020-03-27 Rubrics offer concrete artefacts of what schools evaluate to be of merit and what educators and schools value to be worth rewarding Assessment Rubrics Decoded offers insights into a myriad of issues that affect and are affected by the construction of merit in students learning and the articulation of underlying educational ideologies in the assessment of student achievement Designed for both students and teachers who should have parity of involvement in developing and using rubrics this book covers the problematic issues of assessment in schools while offering readers practical solutions to navigating the ensuing tensions and dilemmas The notion that rubrics may hinder assessment transparency is also discussed with examples to warn against uncritical use of rubrics that may discipline rather than help learners The perspective of a school leader in providing assessment leadership to rubrics usage across a school is included for extending awareness of rubrics beyond classroom contexts This provides an informed approach for teachers to understand the stakes and complexities involved in judging learning and learners whilst offering concrete options and suggestions to consider This book will be a valuable resource for classroom teachers school leaders teacher educators and researchers interested in the field of assessment rubrics Rubric Nation Michelle Tenam-Zemach, Joseph E. Flynn, 2015-04-01 What is a rubric and how are they being used in teacher education and evaluation When did rubrics become ubiquitous in the field of education What impact do rubrics have on students teachers teacher educators and the educational enterprise This book is an edited volume of essays that critically examine the phenomenon of rubrics in teacher education evaluation and education more broadly Rubrics have seen a dramatic rise in use and presence over the past twenty five years in colleges of education and districts across the country Although there is a wealth of literature about how to make rubrics there is scant literature that explores the strengths and weaknesses of rubrics and the impact the rubric phenomenon is having in reshaping education The chapters included in this edited volume will critically reflect on the contemporary contexts of rubrics and the uses and impact of rubrics in education Since rubrics have become indelible in education it is necessary for a fuller nuanced discussion of the phenomenon Creating a book that explores these aspects of rubrics is timely and fundamental to expanding the discourse on this ubiquitous evaluation tool This book is not meant to be a series of chapters dedicated to best practices for creating rubrics nor is this text meant to present all sides of the rubric discussion Rather this text intends to offer critical polemics about rubrics that can spur greater critical discussion about a phenomenon in education that has largely been unquestioned in the literature

Methods and Materials for Teaching the Gifted Frances A. Karnes, Suzanne M. Bean, 2021-09-23 The newly revised and updated fourth edition of Methods and Materials for Teaching the Gifted is an excellent introduction to gifted education and real world learning The chapters of this comprehensive textbook are written by respected leaders in the field of gifted education The authors review the unique needs of gifted learners and give current information on instructional planning and evaluation strategies for best practices and ongoing enhancement and support of gifted programs Chapters include topics such as differentiated curricular design extending learning through research writing challenging instructional units and developing leadership skills and innovative thinkers Instructional practices such as problem based learning technology literacy independent study simulation and gaming and more are addressed A special focus is given to using the Gifted Education Programming Standards and Common Core State Standards The fourth edition provides updated information on funding sources and public relations strategies for gifted education programs It also includes updated lists of books teaching materials websites and other resources for teachers of the gifted

Using Rubrics for Performance-Based Assessment Todd Stanley, 2021-10-03 Writing a rubric that can accurately evaluate student work can be tricky Rather than a single right or wrong answer rubrics leave room for interpretation and thus subjectivity How does a teacher who wants to use performance based assessment in this day and age of educational data and SMART goals find a way to reliably assess student work The solution is to write clear rubrics that allow the evaluator to objectively assess student work This book will show classroom teachers not only how to create their own objective rubrics which can be used to evaluate performance assessments but also how to develop rubrics that measure hard to assess skills such as leadership and grit and how to empower their own students to create rubrics that are tailored to their work
