Figures of Catastrophe Francis Mulhern, 2016-01-26 The leading critic Francis Mulhern uncovers a hidden history in the fiction of the past century identifying a central new genre the condition of culture novel Reading across and against the grain of received patterns of literary association tracing a line from Hardy and Forster through Woolf Waugh and Bowen to Barstow Fowles Rendell Naipaul Amis Kureishi and Smith he elucidates the recurring topics and narrative logics of the genre showing how culture emerges as a special ground of social conflict above all between classes The narrative evaluations of culture's ends the aspirations and the destinies of those whose lives are the subject of these novels grow steadily darker over time and the writing itself grows more introverted A concluding discussion elicits the characteristics of the English condition of culture novel in an international setting and closes in finally on the central conundrum of the genre its uncanny reprise in its own plane of the historical arc of the modern labour movement in Britain from its beginnings in the late nineteenth century through its post war heyday to the seemingly inexorable decline of recent decades What Is Cultural Criticism?
