Making Education Work for the Poor William Elliott,Melinda Lewis,2018-07-03 Making Education Work for the Poor identifies wealth inequality as the gravest threat to the endangered American Dream Though studies have clearly illustrated that education is the primary path to upward mobility today educational outcomes are more directly determined by wealth than innate ability and exerted effort This accounting directly contradicts Americans understanding of the promise the American Dream is supposed to offer a level playing field and a path towards a more profitable future In this book the authors share their own stories of their journeys through the unequal U S education system One started from relative privilege and had her way to prosperity paved and her individual efforts augmented by institutional and structural support The other grew up in poverty and had to fight against currents to complete higher education only to find his ability to profit from that degree compromised by student debt To directly counter wealth inequality and make education the great equalizer that Americans believe it to be this book calls for a revolution in financial aid policy from debt dependence to asset empowerment The book examines the evidence base supporting Children's Savings Accounts including CSAs demonstrated potential to improve children's outcomes all along the opportunity pipeline early education school achievement college access and completion and post college financial health It then outlines a policy that builds on CSAs to incorporate a sizable progressive wealth transfer This new policy Opportunity Investment Accounts is framed as the cornerstone of the wealth building agenda the nation needs in order to salvage the American Dream Written by leading CSA researchers the book includes overviews of the major children's savings legislation proposed in Congress and the key features of prominent CSA programs in operation around the country today as well as new qualitative and quantitative CSA research The book ultimately presents a critical development of the theories that together explain how universal progressive asset based education financing could make education work equitably for all American children

The Gamification of Higher Education

N. Niman, 2014-07-17 Instead of thinking about education as the mastery of a body of knowledge where the subject matter becomes the focus of our attention, The Gamification of Higher Education encourages us to think of it as a process that draws out the best in individuals and prepares them for happy, productive, and successful lives.

Global Developments in Public Infrastructure Procurement Darrin Grimsey, Mervyn K. Lewis, 2017-11-24 There is widespread acceptance of the importance of infrastructure, but less agreement about how it should be funded and procured. While most public infrastructure is still provided in-house or by traditional procurement methods with well-researched strengths and weaknesses, the development of service concession arrangements has seen a greater emphasis on lifecycle costing, risk assessment, and asset design, as featured in a variety of public-private partnership (PPP) delivery models. This book examines the various procurement approaches and provides a framework for comparing their advantages and disadvantages. Drawing on international experience, it considers some of the best and worst examples of PPPs and infrastructure projects generally, along with the lessons for improving infrastructure procurement processes.

Values and Functions for Future Cities

Giulio Mondini, Alessandra Oppio, Stefano Stanghellini, Marta Bottero, Francesca Abastante, 2019-08-06 This book features a selection of the best papers presented at two SIEV seminars held in Venice, Italy, in September 2017 and 2018 in the context of the Urbanpromo Green events. Bringing together experts from a diverse range of fields—economics, appraisal, architecture, energy, urban planning, sociology, and the decision sciences—and government representatives, the seminars encouraged reflections on the role of future cities in terms of sustainable development, with a particular focus on improving collective and individual well-being. ### Reclaiming Gotham

Juan González, 2017-09-05 How Bill de Blasio's mayoral victory triggered a seismic shift in the nation's urban political landscape and what it portends for our cities in the future. In November 2013, a little-known progressive stunned the elite of

New York City by capturing the mayoralty by a landslide Bill de Blasio's promise to end the Tale of Two Cities had struck a chord among ordinary residents still struggling to recover from the Great Recession De Blasio's election heralded the advent of the most progressive New York City government in generations Not since the legendary Fiorello La Guardia in the 1930s had so many populist candidates captured government office at the same time Gotham in other words had been suddenly reclaimed in the name of its people How did this happen De Blasio's victory journalist legend Juan Gonz lez argues was not just a routine change of government but a popular rebellion against corporate friendly policies that had dominated New York for decades Reflecting that broader change liberal Democrats Bill Peduto in Pittsburgh Betsy Hodges in Minneapolis and Martin Walsh of Boston also won mayoral elections that same year as did insurgent Ras Baraka in Newark the following year This new generation of municipal leaders offers valuable lessons for those seeking grassroots reform Track Access

Charges in Freight Transport Justina Hudenko, 2019-06-10 Given that there are still many unclear concepts mutual contradictions and imperfections in methodologies used in the field of track access charging this book acts as a communication tool for researchers and discusses these charges with regard to rail freight competitiveness It addresses four main topics namely the technical features of freight transportation and the costs incurred the impact of incoherence and volatility of freight traffic volume the market response to the track access charge level and the influence of transport policy and state subsidies The text will appeal to infrastructure managers around the world especially those in networks where there is an intention either to facilitate the shift of freight to railways or to develop rail freight corridors It illustrates that there are significant differences in the causation of costs on passenger and freight railways and raises important questions that must be considered when communicating with consumers and the state Migrants and Refugees at UK Borders

Yasmin Ibrahim, 2022-02-27 This book investigates the hostile environment and politics of visceral and racial denigration which have characterised responses to refugees and migrants within the UK and Europe in recent years The European migrant crisis from 2015 onwards has been characterised by an extremely intimidating atmosphere which denies the basic humanity of refugees and migrants Deep rooted in Western Enlightenment trajectory this racially driven politics is linked to the Western theories of scientific superiority which went on to become the basis of eugenics and coloniality as part of modernity Focusing on the migrant crisis Brexit and the impacts of the global pandemic this book unpicks the waves of crises and neuroses about the Other in Europe and the UK The chapters analyse the rhetoric of camps refrigerated death lorries the notion of channel crossings and accidental drownings the formation of relationship with border architecture such as the razor wire and corporeal resistance in detention centres through hunger strike In examining such specific sites of rhetorical articulation policy formation social imagination and its incumbent visuality the chapters deconstruct the intersection of dominant ideologies power knowledge paradigms including the media as part of the public sphere and their combined re mediation of the dispossessed humans in the shores and borders of Europe This important interdisciplinary volume will be of interest to researchers of migration humanitarianism geography global development sociology and communication studies
