Parallel Text French Short Stories Nouvelles Francaises:

French short stories Simon Lee,1966      Parallel Text: French Short Stories Various Authors,1992-07-30 These eight stories by leading 20th century French writers offer fascinating insights into French life and literature and are accompanied by a parallel English text making them valuable for both French and English language students Among the diverse and entertaining stories in the collection are the wistful masterpiece Green Tobacco by Clair Sainte Soline the exuberant tale of The Ants by the post war king of caf society Boris Vian and a suspense in the nineteenth century erotic tradition from Andre de Mandiargues      French Short Stories, Volume 2 / Nouvelles Françaises Tome 2 Simon Lee,1972 Collection of eight short stories representative of 20th century French writing

Short Stories in Japanese Michael Emmerich,2011-05-31 A dual language edition of Japanese stories many appearing in English for the first time This volume of eight short stories with parallel translations offers students at all levels the opportunity to enjoy a wide range of contemporary literature without having constantly to refer back to a dictionary The stories many of which appear here in English for the first time are by well known writers like Haruki Murakami and Banana Yoshimoto as well as emerging voices like Abe Kazushige Ishii Shinji and Kawakami Hiromi From the orthodox to the cutting edge they represent a range of styles and themes showcasing the diversity of Japanese fiction over the past few decades in a collection that is equally rewarding for beginning intermediate and advanced students of English or Japanese Complete with notes the stories make excellent reading in either language

Language Typology Alice Caffarel,J. R. Martin,Christian M. I. M. Matthiessen,2004 This book is intended as a systemic functional contribution to language typology both for those who would like to understand and describe particular languages against the background of generalizations about a wide range of languages and also for those who would like to develop typological accounts that are based on and embody descriptions of the systems of particular languages rather than isolated constructions The book is a unique contribution in at least two respects On the one hand it is the first book based on systemic functional theory that is specifically concerned with language typology On the other hand the book combines the particular with the general in the description of languages it presents comparable sketches of particular languages while at the same time identifying generalizations based on the languages described here as well as on other languages The volume explores eight languages covering seven language families French German Pitjantjatjara Tagalog Telugu Vietnamese Chinese and Japanese

Literary Fiction Geir Farner,2014-01-30 Insofar as literary theory has addressed the issue of literature as a means of communication and the function of literary fiction opinions have been sharply divided indicating that the elementary foundations of literary theory and criticism still need clarifying Many of the classical problems that literary theory has been grappling with from Aristotle to our time are still waiting for a satisfactory solution Based on a new cognitive model of literature as communication Farner systematically explains how literary fiction works providing new solutions to a wide range of literary issues like intention function evaluation delimitation of the literary work as such fictionality suspense and the roles of author and narrator along with such narratological problems as voice point of view and duration Covering a wide range of literary issues central to literary theory offering new theories while also summarising the field as it stands Literary Fiction will be a valuable guide and resource for students and scholars of the theory of literature

The nouveau roman and Writing in Britain After Modernism Adam Guy, 2019-12-10 The nouveau roman and Writing in Britain After Modernism recovers a neglected literary history In the late 1950s news began to arrive in Britain of a group of French writers who were remaking the form of the novel In the work of Michel Butor Marguerite Duras Robert Pinget Alain Robbe Grillet Nathalie Sarraute and Claude Simon the hallmarks of novelistic writing discernible characters psychological depth linear chronology were discarded in favour of other aesthetic horizons Transposed to Britain's highly polarized literary culture the nouveau roman became a focal point for debates about the novel For some the nouveau roman represented an aberration and a pernicious turn against the humanistic values that the novel embodied For others it provided a route out of the stultifying conventionality and conformism that had taken root in British letters On both sides one question persisted given the innovations of interwar modernism to what extent was the nouveau roman actually new This book begins by drawing on publishers' archives and hitherto undocumented sources from a wide range of periodicals to show how the nouveau roman was mediated to the British public Of central importance here is the publisher Calder Boyars and its belief that the nouveau roman could be enjoyed by a mass public The book then moves onto literary responses in Britain to the nouveau roman focusing on questions of translation realism the end of empire and the writing of the project From the translations of Maria Jolas through to the hostile responses of the circle around C P Snow and onto the literary debts expressed in novels by Brian W Aldiss Christine Brooke Rose Eva Figs B S Johnson Alan Sheridan Muriel Spark and Denis Williams the nouveau roman is shown to be a central concern in the postwar British literary field
