Black Education Willy DeMarcell Smith, Eva Wells Chunn, 2017-07-28 This highly focused collection of papers commissioned by the National Urban League offers a candid and courageous portrait of black education in transition This is a period as the editors note in their opening remarks that is characterized by a huge shift from federal responsibility for minority education to authority and autonomy being lodged at the local government level Further many institutions that once worked well no longer do so Many ambitious social programs and policies that originally promised much have been abandoned have failed or just faded away Pivotal to these times and changes is the question of the extent to which the American educational system has been or still is capable of being responsive to incorporating and even instigating equity and excellence for black Americans This volume asks the hard questions is the educational system geared up for the maintenance of anything other than mainstream values can it adapt to minority youth requirements when why and how do educational policies of majorities and minorities clash How are priorities to be established on the basis of wealth or need The legal statutes and administrative enforcement of equal educational opportunities are explored in depth and with a deep compassion for all parties involved
