responded to the rise of the newspaper over the course of the nineteenth century Taking as its subject the ceaseless intertwining of fiction and journalism at this time it tracks the representation of newspapers and journalists in works by Honor de Balzac Edmond and Jules de Goncourt and Guy de Maupassant This was an era in which novels were published in newspapers and novelists worked as journalists In France fiction was to prove an utterly crucial presence at the newspaper s heart with a gilded array of predominant literary figures active in journalism Today few in search of a novel would turn to the pages of a daily newspaper But what are usually cast as discrete realms fiction and journalism came in the nineteenth century to occupy the same space a point which complicates our sense of the cultural history of French literature

new light Instead of conventional or traditional methods interdisciplinary cooperation can lead to innovative approaches that can contribute to the value of each discipline involved It also requires respect and recognition between disciplines their independent positions could be questioned or justified based on their interrelationship Moreover interdisciplinary work brings together diverse experts who cooperate and share their findings with each other In this sense interdisciplinarity can be seen as a dialogue between disciplines In this complex interaction a third field may emerge that transcends the boundaries of each independent discipline Since relatively young Translation Studies has long been influenced by other disciplines its boundaries could be defined through interdisciplinarity In this book numerous translation scholars engage with the relationship between translation and other disciplines Translation here is not only to be understood as a transmission of texts but in a broader sense as denoting a transformation of different phenomena that could be studied both as a product and as a process
