

Grade 10, Lesson 3: Rewriting the PCR Prompt as a Statement

Activity 1 – Scaffolding Activity

Step #1 – In lesson 3, you were asked to consider what the prompt is asking you to write about. Take a look at the prompt again:

Prompt

You have read two excerpts from Jane Austen’s Persuasion that shed light on the social world Jane Austen inhabited—one of rigid social classes and elaborate rules. Readers are perhaps given some insight into how Austen felt about these facts of life in passages such as this one:

“such the cares to alloy, the agitations to vary, the sameness and the elegance, the prosperity and the nothingness of her scene of life”

Write an analysis of how Austen depicts society in these two excerpts. Does she seem to be celebrating that world or criticizing it?

Step #2 – Read the three statements below and identify which statement best answers the prompt. Consider the elements that make each statement incomplete or complete. Think about what parts of the prompt each statement answers or does not answer.

Statement A: Upper class society in Persuasion is one in which material excess and family lineage are of the utmost importance. Austen criticizes this world by describing the desperate lengths her characters are willing to take to maintain the status quo.

Statement B: In Persuasion, it is very important for the characters to maintain social pretenses. Austen celebrates this world by describing how logical and wise Lady Russell and Anne are.

Statement C: Sir Walter and his family must learn to cope with a decrease in material comfort. In this way, Austen criticizes a world where people are forced to give up their stuff.

Step #3 – In the space below, identify which statement you selected. Explain how the statement fully answers the prompt.

Step #4 – What parts of the prompt were missing or inaccurate in the two statements you did not choose?
