Subject: Immigration Pardon Letter

Dear [Supervisor's Name],

To Whomever May Be Concerned:

I am writing this immigration pardon letter today on behalf of my husband, Raul Jones, a hardworking immigrant who recently had his visa revoked on the grounds that he overstayed past the allotted dates specified on his visa card. In this letter, I hope to detail the circumstances that led to his overstay and show that he is an absolutely dedicated family man devoted to making this country a better home for everyone. I humbly ask for your consideration of the situation and that you issue him a pardon for his immigration status so that he can continue his stay in the country.

During the six months prior to when his visa expired, my husband was making all necessary preparations to apply for a stay to his visa. Unfortunately, during the second month, he was laid off from work, which meant he had to find new employment prior to being able to renew his visa. He finally found a new job after a month and a half of searching, but the resulting gap meant that there was a one-and-a-half-month gap between when his first visa expired and when the second one took effect. We sought legal counsel for this and was told that nothing needed to be filed, as this was a normal immigration status, so we took no action.

Unfortunately, we later received notice that this was not legal, and now Raul is facing deportation. We have two children at home, and Raul is the main breadwinner for the family, so this would be a devastating emotional and financial blow for the family. He has never had a criminal record, and is highly active in his community through service and mentoring. I hope that you will consider his circumstances and that of our family, and issue him a pardon for his immigration status.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Jane Jones
