Christian C. Sahner, 2018-08-14 A look at the developing conflicts in Christian Muslim relations during late antiquity and the early Islamic era How did the medieval Middle East transform from a majority Christian world to a majority Muslim world and what role did violence play in this process Christian Martyrs under Islam explains how Christians across the early Islamic caliphate slowly converted to the faith of the Arab conquerors and how small groups of individuals rejected this faith through dramatic acts of resistance including apostasy and blasphemy Using previously untapped sources in a range of Middle Eastern languages Christian Sahner introduces an unknown group of martyrs who were executed at the hands of Muslim officials between the seventh and ninth centuries CE Found in places as diverse as Syria Spain Egypt and Armenia they include an alleged descendant of Muhammad who converted to Christianity high ranking Christian secretaries of the Muslim state who viciously insulted the Prophet and the children of mixed marriages between Muslims and Christians Sahner argues that Christians never experienced systematic persecution under the early caliphs and indeed they remained the largest portion of the population in the greater Middle East for centuries after the Arab conquest. Still episodes of ferocious violence contributed to the spread of Islam within Christian societies and memories of this bloodshed played a key role in shaping Christian identity in the new Islamic empire. Christian Martyrs under Islam examines how violence against Christians ended the age of porous religious boundaries and laid the foundations for more antagonistic Muslim-Christian relations in the centuries to come.

Carpentry and Building in Late Imperial China Ruitenbeek, 2021-09-13 This is a study of the world of carpenters and joiners discussing both the technical and the ritual and religious aspects of building. The heart of the book is an annotated translation of the fifteenth-century carpenter's manual Lu Ban jing. Numerous illustrations further enhance the value of this book.

Byzantium and Islam Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2012 This magnificent volume explores the epochal transformations and unexpected continuities in the Byzantine Empire from the 7th to the 9th century. At the beginning of the 7th century the Empire's southern provinces, the vibrant diverse areas of North Africa and the eastern Mediterranean, were at the crossroads of exchanges reaching from Spain to China. These regions experienced historic upheavals when their Christian and Jewish communities encountered the emerging Islamic world, and by the 9th century an unprecedented cross-fertilization of cultures had taken place. This extraordinary age is brought vividly to life in insightful contributions by leading international scholars, accompanied by sumptuous illustrations of the period's most notable arts and artifacts. Resplendent images of authority, religion, and trade embodied in precious metals, brilliant textiles, fine ivories, elaborate mosaics, manuscripts, and icons, many of them never before published, highlight the dynamic dialogue between the rich array of Byzantine styles and the newly forming Islamic aesthetic. With its masterful exploration of two centuries that would shape the emerging medieval world, this illuminating publication provides a unique interpretation of a period that still resonates today.
