This symbol indicates that dangerous voltage constituting a risk of electric shock is present within the unit.

This symbol indicates that there are important operating and maintenance instructions in the product manual accompanying this unit.

Wiring the Mains Power Supply Plug(UK Only)

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The main unit of this equipment is supplied with a standard plug-in mounting cable. The colour of the cable is indicated in the picture of the plug and it is important that you do not connect the cable using the wrong colour.

There are two plug cable terminals on the back of the unit. If the cable is damaged or if a replacement cable must be required, it must fit the colour code on the picture of the plug. Replacement cables are available from your dealer.

If the wiring plug is not suitable for the power points in your house or the cable is too long, enough to reach the power point, you must obtain a suitable safety approved replacement or consult your dealer for assistance.

However, if there is no alternative to cutting off the plug, remove the tape and then safely dispose of the plug. Do NOT connect the plug to a power socket or there is a risk of electric shock or fire.

IMPORTANT

The cable for the main power supply must be connected to the following order:

Blue = NEUTRAL, Brown = LIVE

By these colours they are connected to the corresponding wiring for the correct colour plug provided as follows:

The cable colour BLUE is connected to the terminal marked with the letter BLUE or BLACK, the cable colour BROWN must be connected to the terminal marked with the letter L or connected to the terminal marked with the letter N.

WARNING: Do not connect cables used for the earth terminal, which is marked with the letter E or by the earth symbol, to the terminals marked with the letters L or N.

The warning shown in the picture in the manual indicates that it should not be repaired with other household cables at the end of its working life.

To prevent possible harm to the environment in the future, it is important that unwanted waste should be separated from other types of waste and recycled in a responsible manner for the sustainable reuse of natural resources.

Household waste should not be added to the waste when this is the case for the product, as this may pose a risk to the environment in the future. It is important that you do not add the waste to the household waste when recycling.

Business waste should be sorted by material and then the labels and conditions of the purchase are followed. The product should not be mixed with other commercial waste for disposal.
