Defense, 1986 Each issue includes a classified section on the organization of the Dept The Amarna Letters Jacob Lauinger, Tyler Yoder, 2025-02-28 During Egypt's Eighteenth Dynasty ca 1550 1292 BCE the New Kingdom pharaohs campaigned repeatedly in Syria and the Levant establishing political control over much of the region As a result of these conquests the rulers of Levantine city states sent letters written in Akkadian in the cuneiform script on clay tablets to the Egyptian pharaohs So too did the kings of the other great geopolitical powers of the time Assyria Babylonia Hatti and Mittani maintain an active diplomatic correspondence with Egypt's pharaohs Beginning in the nineteenth century CE local farmers and later archaeologists working at Akhetaten modern Tell el Amarna the one time Egyptian capital discovered remnants of this correspondence mostly dating to the reigns of Amenhotep III ca 1388 1350 BCE and his son and successor Akhenaten ca 1350 1333 BCE with some dating to Tutankhamun ca 1333 1323 This is a period of increasing friction as the great powers sought to extend their borders The Amarna Letters thus illuminate a pivotal point in Egypt's foreign relations during the Late Bronze Age Even though they provide us with a narrow window of only about thirty years time 1358 1325 BCE they are an important witness to the general nature of Egypt's diplomatic relations during the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Dynasties This new digitally borne edition of the Amarna Letters offers the first complete collection of the letters with responsible transliterations that have been checked against available photographs and hand copies clear and consistent translations and an up to date and extensive bibliography As such it is and will remain an essential resource Commerce Business Daily, 1998-10

SeaCities Joerg Baumeister, Edoardo Bertone, Paul Burton, 2020-11-28 This book presents and discusses a strategy which includes four approaches to dealing with the risk of sea level rise and other water hazards It also offers opportunities for cities to explore urban extensions such as marine estates aquatic food production systems new sea related industries maritime transport developments new oceanic tourist attractions and the designation of additional coastal ecological zones The urban interface between Sea and Cities generates therefore both burning issues and valuable opportunities and raises the question of whether it is possible to solve the former by exploiting the latter Professional Journal of the United States Army ,2017-07 Triumph and Betrayal Alexander Johannes Edmonds,2025-04-21 While the study of Assyria as the world's first empire has never been more popular the events of the foundational early Neo Assyrian period 935-745 BC remain only poorly understood and explained This book re-examines the historical question of Assyria's expansion presenting a novel reconstruction of the early Neo Assyrian period with the latest data including new Assyrian kings detailed regional studies synthesising the newest historical and archaeological findings and interpretative essays outlining new historical factors The resultant history is unprecedentedly complex containing newly discovered succession conflicts difficult compromises with neighbouring powers local dynasties appointed to Assyrian governorships self-serving high officials and sudden reverses in policy In place of circular structuralist arguments for the Neo Assyrian expansion it presents a new model emphasising internal political conflict and competing visions for Assyria's future This book is intended for historians and archaeologists of Assyria for whom it will provide a new basis for research and also for scholars of neighbouring disciplines and laypersons interested in what happens to an ancient state before it becomes an empire

Museums in Arabia Karen Exell,Sarina Wakefield,2016-05-12 Museum activity has in recent years undergone major and rapid development in the Arabian Peninsula with the regeneration of existing museums as well as the establishment of new ones Alongside such rapid expansion questions are inevitably raised as to the new challenges museums face in this region and whether the museum as a central focus of heritage preservation also runs the risk of overshadowing local forms of heritage performance and preservation With contributions from leading academics from a range of disciplines and heritage practitioners with first-hand experience of working in the region this volume addresses the issues and challenges facing museums in Kuwait Saudi Arabia Qatar Yemen and the UAE It focuses on the themes of politics public engagement and the possibility of a new museum paradigm which might appropriately reflect the interests and culture of the region The interdisciplinary approaches analyse museum development from both an inside and outside perspective suggesting that museums do not follow a uniform trajectory across the region but are embedded within each state's socio-cultural context individual government agendas and political realities Including case study analysis which brings the more marginal nations into the debates as well as new empirical data and critical evaluation of the role of the museum in the Arabian Peninsula societies this book adds fresh perspectives to the study of Gulf heritage and museology It will appeal to regional and international practitioners and academics across the disciplines of museum studies cultural studies and anthropology as well as to anyone with an interest in the Gulf and Middle East The Military Balance 2023 The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS),2023-02-15 The Military Balance has been published annually since 1959 The 2023 edition provides an open source assessment of the armed forces and equipment inventories of 173 countries with accompanying defence economics data Alongside detailed country data The Military Balance assesses important military issues region by region and includes graphics to illustrate these as well as noteworthy equipment developments Maps this year include a focus on Russia's full scale invasion of Ukraine and select China Russia military cooperation activities The book draws on the range of data carried in the Military Balance online database particularly the procurement features in each regional section The accompanying wallchart explores the military use of outer space an increasingly important element of defence capabilities focusing on China Russia and the United States For those involved in defence and security policymaking analysis and research The Military Balance is an indispensable source

Disarmament, Demobilisation and Reintegration of Ex-Combatants in Africa Ibrahim Bangura, 2023-07-17 This book critically examines the approaches to Disarmament Demobilisation and Reintegration DDR of ex combatants programming in Africa Drawing on empirical evidence from across the continent the book investigates the different theories contextual realities and approaches that have informed the establishment and implementation of such programmes the opportunities they have provided for stability peace and security and the challenges with which they have contended The book combines broader theoretical analysis with country specific case studies including Nigeria the Central African Republic South Sudan Somalia Liberia Sierra Leone Burundi Zimbabwe South Africa and the Democratic Republic of Congo Overall the book asks how DDR programming has evolved in Africa what factors have contributed to the success or failure of DDR processes and what we can expect for DDR in Africa in the future This book will be a useful guide for students and researchers across the fields of Peace and Conflict Studies Security Studies History Political Science Sociology and African Studies

South Yemen's Independence Struggle Anne-Linda Amira Augustin, 2021-11-30 A bold firsthand account of one of the persistent Arab uprisings in Yemen At its beginning in 2007 the Southern Movement in South Yemen was a loose merger of different people most of them former army personnel and state employees of the People's Democratic Republic of Yemen PDRY who were forced from their jobs after the war in 1994 only four years after the unification between the PDRY and the Yemen Arab Republic This bold ethnographic account of a persistent Arab uprising in a rarely studied corner of the Middle East explores why the Southern Movement has grown so tremendously during the last decade and how it developed from a primarily social movement demanding social rights into a mass protest movement claiming independence for a state that had long vanished from the world map Anne Linda Amira Augustin asks why so many young people born after 1990 joined the movement and demanded the re-establishment of a state that they had never themselves experienced At the core of South Yemeni resistance lies the transmission from generation to generation of a dominant counternarrative which may be seen as the continuation and rehabilitation of the PDRY's national narrative This narrative amplified through everyday communication in families and neighborhoods but also by media makers journalists school and university teachers civil society actors and by the movement's activists opposes the national unity narrative of the Republic of Yemen and intensifies the demands for an independent state
