Planning Application Supporting Documents:

Town Planning in Hong Kong Lawrence Wai-chung Lai, 1999-05-01 As Hong Kong town planning legislation develops there is an ever growing demand for a better understanding of the rules and principles behind the discretionary decisions of the Town Planning Board regarding planning applications Town Planning in Hong Kong A Review of Planning Appeals is a thorough analysis of 50 unreported cases of the Town Planning Appeal Board on appeals against the Town Planning Board decisions concerning planning applications and review This book goes beyond the usual requirements of books on case and materials it systematically documents the facts and arguments presented in the decisions distills the reasons and rules behind them and comments on each in detail It also provides a comparative study of all the cases from the perspective of town planning and economics This book will be of great value to developers planners lawyers and professionals who work in the development and conservation of lands in Hong Kong

Town Planning Practice Lawrence Wai-Chung Lai, Ki Fong, 2000-07-01 This book is the first systematic attempt to introduce the current practice and statistics of town planning in Hong Kong Part I gives an analytical account of the practical and ideological context discusses design principles and describes procedures of town planning with particular reference to change in use The emphasis is on skills of plan interpretation and an appreciation of the intellectual disposition of planners and various objective constraints confronting them Part II is the first of its kind in presenting and analysing the statistics of planning applications for 11 zones from 1978 to 1998 The success rates of planning applications as well as the main reasons used by the Town Planning Board for rejecting planning applications are elucidated

Flexibility and Commitment in Planning D. Thomas, M. Tvrđý, 2012-12-06 This book is about the ways in which two western European countries attempt to cope with the changing demands of urban development In particular it is concerned with the differences in approach of the Dutch and English planning systems and the contrasting ways in which they are used to guide promote and control development The book results from a research study in which members of staff at Delft of Technology and Oxford Polytechnic compared local planning and University development in the Netherlands and England The aim was to investigate ways in which development was promoted and controlled under different planning systems The research was subsequently developed along two converging lines One was an examination of over twenty case studies of plan making and the control of development in the cities of Leiden and Oxford The other was a study of the two planning systems and the ways in which the respective approaches to planning were seen to relate closely to the contrasting legal and administrative systems and differences in development practice The convergence of the two lines of enquiry produced a tension between empirical observations and theoretical supposition which led to a fruitful development of ideas about the nature of the two planning systems and how they promote and control development

Understanding Geographies of Polarization and Peripheralization Thilo Lang, Sebastian Henn, Kornelia Ehrlich, Wladimir Sgibnev, 2015-08-31 This book presents a multifaceted perspective on regional development and corresponding processes of adaptation and response focusing on the concepts of polarization and peripheralization It discusses theoretical and empirical foundations and presents several compelling case studies from Central and Eastern Europe and beyond Planning

Support Systems in Practice Stan Geertman, John Stillwell, 2012-11-02 Planning Support Systems Technologies that are Driving Planning Michael Batty Centre for Advanced Spatial Analysis CASA University College London 1 19 Torrington Place London WC 1 E 6BT United Kingdom I had always thought the term Planning Support Systems abbreviated to PSS had been coined by the father of land use modelling Britton Harris in his article Beyond Geographic Information Systems computers and the planning professional published in the Journal of the American Planning Association in 1989 Harris 1989 Until I asked him that is In a response to a paper he gave to the Urban and Regional Information Systems Association URISA in the summer of 1987 he told me that someone in the audience who he cannot quite remember actually coined the term referring to planning support systems as that constellation of digital techniques such as GIS which were emerging to support the planning process In fact the predecessor term decision support systems DSS from which this unknown originator obviously defined PSS by analogy was coined as far back as the late 1970s in the management literature for a loose assemblage of techniques usually computer based which aided management decisions The term slowly entered the geographical lexicon as spatial decision support systems SDSS and this is probably first attributable to Lew Hopkins and Mark Armstrong who used it in a paper published in AutoCarto 7 in 1985 Hopkins and Armstrong 1985 The NPPF Handbook Gregory Jones

KC, Simon Neate, 2025-09-04 Promising 1 5 million new homes by 2029 the new Labour government has made increased house building a central part of its growth agenda The National Planning Policy Framework NPPF is key to securing that If you want to really understand English planning policy and whether it is likely to achieve a better supply of homes economic growth less ugly more functional and higher quality places better health and well being and more biodiversity this Handbook will be invaluable In clear language it examines the meaning of the NPPF in a comprehensive and systematic way by reference to case law and appeal decisions The Handbook provides practical guidance on whether a policy paragraph has changed in substance or just its numbering Users will be able to assess whether previous authorities are still relevant Expertly co edited by Gregory Jones KC and Simon Neate MRTPI the book provides a unique commentary from a blended team of experienced specialist planning barristers from the leading planning chambers of Francis Taylor Building and planning transport and economics consultants from the international professional services firm WSP This definitive single volume guide to the NPPF will be essential reading for legal practitioners and professionals working in the field of planning
