HandiLand Elizabeth A. Wheeler, 2019-08-21 HandiLand looks at young adult novels fantasy series graphic memoirs and picture books of the last 25 years in which characters with disabilities take center stage for the first time These books take what others regard as weaknesses for instance Harry Potter s headaches or Hazel Lancaster s oxygen tank and redefine them as part of the hero s journey HandiLand places this movement from sidekick to hero in the political contexts of disability rights movements in the United States the United Kingdom and Ghana Elizabeth A Wheeler invokes the fantasy of HandiLand an ideal society ready for young people with disabilities before they get there as a yardstick to measure how far we ve come and how far we still need to go toward the goal of total inclusion The book moves through the public spaces young people with disabilities have entered including schools nature and online communities As a disabled person and parent of children with disabilities Wheeler offers an inside look into families who collude with their kids in shaping a better world Moving funny and beautifully written HandiLand The Crippiest Place on Earth is the definitive study of disability in contemporary literature for young readers Passport to the Best of Cape Town, South Africa Carrie Hampton,2004 Passport to the best of Cape Town South Afrca is relevant not just to the first time traveller to this city but the second and third time visitor too serving travellers from around the world as well as fellow South Africans Disabilities and Disorders in Literature for Youth Alice Crosetto,Rajinder Garcha,Mark Horan,2009-09-01 This reference volume identifies almost 1 000 resources to help educators professionals parents siblings guardians and students understand the various disabilities and disorders faced by children today Surfer ,1997

Disability Studies and the Environmental Humanities Sarah Jaquette Ray,Jay Sibara,2017-06 Although scholars in the environmental humanities have been exploring the dichotomy between wild and built environments for several years few have focused on the field of disability studies a discipline that enlists the contingency between environments and bodies as a foundation of its scholarship On the other hand scholars in disability studies have demonstrated the ways in which the built environment privileges some bodies and minds over others yet they have rarely examined the ways in which toxic environments engender chronic illness and disability or how environmental illnesses disrupt dominant paradigms for scrutinizing disability Designed as a reader for undergraduate and graduate courses Disability Studies and the Environmental Humanities employs interdisciplinary perspectives to examine such issues as slow violence imperialism race toxicity eco sickness the body in environmental justice ableism and other topics With a historical scope spanning the seventeenth century to the present this collection not only presents the foundational documents informing this intersection of fields but also showcases the most current work making it an indispensable reference Researching Literacy Lives Teresa Cremin,Marilyn Mottram,Fiona M. Collins,Sacha Powell,Rose Drury,2019-02-13 A ground breaking book For years educationists have sought evidence of genuine partnerships between schools and homes reciprocal partnerships where schools are as keen to foster home practices relating to literacy and learning as they are to tell families this is what we do and ask that they should do the same Eve Bearne Cambridge Un A Celebration of Literature and Response Marjorie R. Queen Orca & the Pigs R.V. Bailey,Jennifer FitzGerald,2016-06-19 The disappearance of a Reno couple from Prince William Sound Alaska along with a half eaten dog apparently by killer whales raises suspicion that a certain orca pack called the A T pack led by a particularly sharp and aggressive female the queen may be responsible An exploration geologist and his wife Alaska residents and both interested in orcas carry out investigations in the A T pack s home waters to learn more about their behavior and habits They are joined by a marine biologist orca specialist from southern California A number of people are determined to communicate with the orcas including a psychologist from Canada a rock band from Vancouver BC and music for the orcas via underwater speakers Some kids from Anchorage attempt to communicate with the whales with near fatal consequences Accompany the intelligent orcas as they hunt kill and eat various types of fish and animals They also have fun The three investigators decide to test the interest of the orcas under federal and state supervision in a totally strange food to help determine if they might kill and eat humans Small pigs a human food were decided upon as the best choice for testing orca reaction to strange food animals The test is successful and part of the A T pack is orca led but not for long
