(continued from page 10) The first step was to identify the key players in the market. This was done by conducting a series of interviews with industry experts and by analyzing market data. The next step was to develop a list of potential products. This was done by brainstorming ideas and by conducting a series of focus groups. The final step was to select the products to be developed. This was done by evaluating the potential products against a set of criteria, including market size, competition, and profitability.
