illustrations in the earlier editions have been superseded by new ones a number of which are reproduced for the first time For the new material included in this edition the authors and the publisher are indebted to friends and numerous sympathetic correspondents and they wish to express their indebtedness especially to Mr John W Beatty Director of the Carnegie Institute in Pittsburgh Mr E D Brooks Mr Clifford Gore Chambers Mr E T Cook Mr Leon Dabo Mr Frederick Dielmann Messrs Dowdeswell M Th odore Duret Mr A J Eddy Mrs Wickham Flower Right Hon Jonathan Hogg Mr H S Hubbell Mr Will H Low Mr Burton Mansfield Judge Parry Mr H Reinhardt Mr H S Ridings Mr Albert Rouiller Miss Alice Rouiller Mr William Scott M Str hlen Mr Ross Turner Mr C F G Turner Mr C Howard Walker Mr J H Wrenn      Fairy Circles. Crandall,2014-11-17 Example in this ebook I THE BOY AND THE BROOK MA may I go fishing That the boy should use the homely Ma rather than Mamma makes it clear that he is not of our generation although his generous crop of freckles looks familiar and his blue jumper coming down to the knees and that battered straw hat are sometimes duplicated in our own day It is fifty years across which we look even if he does stand out so clearly The question is one that he asks daily if not oftener from the time when the pussy willows begin to swell in the spring time to the season for comforters and woollen mittens in the late fall Hark Do you hear the voice that is calling the boy It comes distinctly across the long stretch of years and is as sweet and compelling now as when it pulled at the heart of the lad on that long ago summer day It is the voice of the brook It gurgles and laughs and pleads It says Ha ha ha Isn t this a beautiful world and this the finest day ever Come on little boy and play in my ripples I ve some nice peppermint growing on my banks and all sorts of pretty pebbles that I have washed for you Look sharp now Do you see that trout lying at the head of the riffle Do you know that I counted thirty seven as big as he is between the bridge and the Deer Pond Come and catch em That brook was a part and a large one of the first permanent impressions made upon the boy s mind It had its rise in a little pond concerning which there was the usual dark legend that it had no bottom Just what held up the water was a mystery but the boy never doubted the legend It was fed by numerous springs Vigorous and noisy from the moment when it broke forth from its source the brook was ten miles of silvery laughter If you ll not go out of sight of the house you may go for an hour says the mother for she too has ears to hear the call of the brook and can understand its charm for her lad Just up in the pasture lot above the bridge calls back the boy and starts off with his pole and a supply of angleworms wrapped up in paper Take special notice of that pole for it is the joy of the boy s heart He had thought that a cedar sapling peeled and thoroughly dried made an ideal outfit until a friend gave him a straight cane pole painted a brilliant blue In after years he owned not a few jointed rods made by hand of split bamboo but the tide of joy and pride has never risen higher in his heart than on the day when he became the possessor of the blue cane pole There is a place in the pasture lot where the brook stretches itself out in a long reach of still water Above and below are rippling shallows Wary as is his approach the boy sees the shy trout darting from the riffles into the darker water Patiently he dangles his baited hook by the side of a sunken log and trails it temptingly back and forth before the coverts where the cunning fish lie hidden but all in vain They have learned by experience that the presence of a blue jumper and a blue pole spells out danger for them and refuse to take any risks Is this like so many other fishing trips to end in failure Watch the boy Laying the blue pole carefully on the ground he rolls his sleeves to his shoulders and lying on his stomach on the bank of the brook thrusts one hand very gently into the water With the utmost caution he feels here and there under the overhanging sods until at last his fingers touch something that sends an electric thrill tingling through the length of his little body He feels a trout and strangely enough it does not stir The little fingers gently tickle the belly of the trout as they work their way towards its head and when they have encircled the body at the gills they suddenly contract and the fish is thrown far back upon the grass To be continue in this ebook     Illustrated
