Nell in some mysterious way had let down a muslin frock of last season till it reached her ankles. And Meg was doing her best to put her foot down upon it. In a metaphorical sense of course Meg Woolcot at twenty-one was far too lady-like to resort to a personal struggle with her young sister. But her eyes were distressed. You can't say I don't look nice, Nell said. Why even Martha said so. La Miss Nell and held her head on one side with a pleased look for two minutes.
