Tadem, 2009-08-16 The Philippines makes an interesting case for examining direct and collective acts of contention against the neoliberal project of economic globalization Crippled by foreign debt indiscriminate liberalization of trade falling stock markets and perpetual corruption the Philippines is also a democratic polity and one of the few countries in Asia with a vibrant and dynamic civil society sector This collection has chapters on the Freedom from Debt Coalition's campaign on debt relief the Stop the New Round Coalition's advocacy to change international trade rules and barriers the global taxation initiative as embodied in Tobin tax advocacy in the country the Transparency and Accountability Network's anti corruption effort and the Philippine Fair Trade Forum's enterprise on fair trade Localizing and Transnationalizing Contentious Politics is the first work of its kind to focus on five global civil society movements in the Philippines and their responses to the inequities of neoliberal globalization Northern scholars have acknowledged the persistent absence of the South in research on activism around global issues and this book can help fill this gap Using political process theory as a framework the book traces the emergence development and diffusion of these social movements in the Philippines Globalization is taken as the environment in which they operate to highlight the role of increased interdependence and internationalization and the predominance of a particular ideology in the dynamics of contention Report of the Royal Commission on the Militia and Volunteers Great Britain. Royal Commission on the Militia and Volunteers,1904 The Gambia International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2025-06-26 Economic momentum remains strong and inflation is slowly coming down Despite strong revenue collection efforts fiscal performance in 2024 was weaker than anticipated due to unbudgeted spending pressures and faster execution of foreign financed capital projects The foreign exchange market continues to function smoothly and foreign reserves remain at a comfortable level Structural reforms are advancing albeit slowly The economic outlook is subject to large downside risks particularly owing to global geopolitical tensions and uncertainty Exposure to climate risks is significant primarily through The Gambia s low elevation and reliance on rain fed agriculture The authorities have requested Fund support under the Resilience and Sustainability Facility RSF to support their ambitious climate agenda thereby complementing the ECF in strengthening long term macroeconomic stability and resilience Journal of the House of Representatives of the United States United States.
