

THE DUBE TRAIN BY CAN THEMBA

1. Summary

The narrator is at Dube Station in Soweto on a cold Monday morning, waiting for the train to Johannesburg. All his descriptions of the station and people emphasise his depression, which he feels is shared by all the people around him.

When he gets onto the train he sits opposite a huge man. When the train gets to Pheloni Station a young woman enters the carriage and sits next to the narrator. Soon afterwards a tsotsi jumps onto the train and begins verbally harassing the girl. When the girl reaches her stop and wants to get off the train the tsotsi prevents her and slaps her. She tries to get away from him by jumping over the narrator but the tsotsi follows her.

No one dares to say anything to stop the tsotsi, until an older woman starts shouting at the men and calling them cowards. This causes the tsotsi to swear at the woman. This angers the huge man sitting opposite the narrator and he gets up and moves towards the tsotsi. The tsotsi pulls out a knife and cuts the big man's chest and arm. The big man is enraged and, in spite of his injuries, he grabs the tsotsi and lifts him up. He throws him out of the train window.

Everyone is shocked, but the incident soon becomes just another event on the morning Dube train.

2. Title

The title focuses on the train journey rather than on any characters in the story. The writer intends us to see the train journey as a comment on the lives people experience. Even when bad things happen people just accept them. The incident on the train happens to people no one knows or is concerned about. It soon becomes: Just an incident in the morning Dube train.

3. Themes

The main themes of this story are:

- Violence, crime and barbarism in the townships; and

Fact - Fiction - "faction" Horst Zander, 1999 The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfe and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimaged in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature Alternation, 1995 Can Themba Sipiwo Mahala, 2022-03-30 Mahala's biography gives insight into the life and writing of Can Themba 1924 1967 an iconic figure of the South African literary world and Drum journalist who died in exile Can Themba The Intellectual Tsotsi a Biography brings to life the iconic South African writer and journalist Can Themba 21 June 1924 8 September 1967 who died while exiled in Swaziland in 1967 Best known for his classic short story The Suit Themba has been somewhat of an enigma with very little known about his personal life This biography brings forth the voices of those who had personal interactions with him shining the light on different aspects of his life including education literature journalism and political fraternities It features interviews with prominent individuals including his former students Abdul Bham Pitika Ntuli and Mbulelo Mzamane journalistic mentees Juby Mayet and Joe Thloloe as well as friends colleagues and contemporaries Parks Mangena Peter Magubane Jurgen Schadeberg Don Mattera and Nadine Gordimer in addition to artists and academics Mothobi Mutloatse Muxe Nkondo and Njabulo S Ndebele Also featured in this biographical text are veteran political figures such as Mangosuthu Buthelezi Lindiwe Mabuza and Ahmed Kathrada Themba s intellectual acumen scholarly aptitude and witticism are some of his most revered characteristics amongst those who had interactions with him either in person or through comprehensive reading of his works Mahala is a master storyteller and deftly weaves together the threads of Themba s dynamic life In this edifying biography Mahala recreates the sparkle and pathos of Sophiatown of the 1950s and the Drum era Can Themba s successes and failures as well as his triumphs and tribulations reverberate on the pages of this long awaited biography

Apartheid and Beyond Rita Barnard, 2012-08-01 Apartheid and Beyond offers trenchant historically sensitive readings of writings by Coetzee Gordimer Fugard Tlali Dike Magona and Mda focusing on the intimate relationship between place subjectivity and literary form It also explores the way apartheid functioned in its day to day operations as a geographical system of control exerting its power through such spatial mechanisms as residential segregation bantustans passes and prisons Throughout the study Rita Barnard provides historical context by highlighting key events such as colonial occupation the creation of black townships migration forced removals the emergence of informal settlements and the gradual integration of white cities Apartheid and Beyond is both an innovative account of an important body of politically inflected literature and an imaginative reflection on the socio spatial aspects of the transition from apartheid to democracy

The Form of Ideology and the Ideology of Form Francesca Orsini, Neelam Srivastava, Laetitia Zecchini, 2022-02-23 This timely volume focuses on the period of decolonization and the Cold War as the backdrop to the emergence of new and diverse literary aesthetics that accompanied anti imperialist commitments and Afro Asian solidarity Competing internationalist frameworks produced a flurry of writings that made Asian African and other world literatures visible to each other for the first time The book s essays examine a host of print culture formats magazines newspapers manifestos conference proceedings ephemera etc and modes of cultural mediation and transnational exchange that enabled the construction of a variously inflected Third World culture which played a determining role throughout the Cold War The essays in this collection focus on locations as diverse as Morocco Tunisia South Asia China Spain and Italy and on texts in Arabic English French Hindi Italian and Spanish In doing so they highlight the combination of local debates and struggles and internationalist networks and aspirations that found expression in essays novels travelogues translations reviews reportages and other literary forms With its comparative study of print cultures with a focus on decolonization and the Cold War the volume makes a major contribution both to studies of postcolonial literary and print cultures and to cultural Cold War studies in multilingual and non Western contexts and will be of interest to historians and literary scholars alike

Text and Authority in the South African Nazaretha Church

Joel Cabrita,2014-04-24 Text and Authority in the South African Nazaretha Church tells the story of one of the largest African churches in South Africa Ibandla lamaNazaretha or Church of the Nazaretha Founded in 1910 by charismatic faith healer Isaiah Shembe the Nazaretha church with over four million members has become an influential social and political player in the region Deeply influenced by a transnational evangelical literary culture Nazaretha believers have patterned their lives upon the Christian Bible They cast themselves as actors who enact scriptural drama upon African soil But Nazaretha believers also believe the existing Christian Bible to be in need of updating and revision For this reason they have written further scriptures a new Bible which testify to the miraculous work of their founding prophet Shembe Joel Cabrita s book charts the key role that these sacred texts play in making breaking and contesting social power and authority both within the church and more broadly in South African public life
