Waverley Novels: The fair maid of Perth. Anne of Geierstein Walter Scott, 1846 The Fair Maid of Perth Walter Scott, 1999 The Fair Maid of Perth centres on the merchant classes of Perth in the fourteenth century and their commitment to the pacific values of trade in a bloody and brutal era in which no right to life is recognised and in which the Scottish nobles fight for control of the weak Scottish monarchy and clans are prepared to extinguish each other to gain supremacy in the central Highlands It is a remarkable novel in part because late in his career Scott has a new subject and in part because he employs a spare narrative style that is without parallel in the rest of his oeuvre Far too many critics from his son in law J G Lockhart to the present day have written off late Scott and seen his last works as evidence of failing powers The readers of this edition of The Fair Maid of Perth will see that these critics are mistaken for in it we witness a luminous creative intelligence working at high pressure to produce a tightly organised and deeply moving novel *Waverley Novels: The fair maid of Perth.
