Suggest Criteria Questions: For Each question, fill in key information to complete your notes.

1. How did the Reformation and Scientific Revolution lead to the Enlightenment?

The Reformation challenged the _____ of the Catholic Church. Martin Luther and other reformers called for arguments to be made from the scriptures. The Catholic Church leaders or Pope saying something was true was not enough. Claims about what God wanted needed validation from the _____.

The Scientific Revolution challenged the authority of ancient thinkers. Science requires that hypotheses, like "the Earth is the _____ of the universe," be tested and supported through observation and valid conclusions. Galileo and Copernicus could validate their claims that the _____ in the solar system revolved around the _____ with new technology showing what was observable to anyone.

That next step was to challenge the social and political structure of society. The Enlightenment thinkers would ask why lords and _____ have so much power, why the common man is treated so _____, and why there was so much inequality: monks, sun, vented, kings, planets, poorly, authority, Bible

2. What did Enlightenment thinkers put their faith in?

They believed that human reason and rational thinking could guide humans towards understanding the _____ of human nature and how society works. They trusted their ability to figure out solutions to problems. Human Reason was seen to be a _____ from God and was to be used to gain the light of knowledge and understanding. Knowledge is Illuminating. "Enlightenment is man's _____ (coming out from) from his self-imposed bondage. Bondage is the inability to use one's own understanding without another's guidance. Dares to know! "Have the _____ to use your own (understanding)," is therefore the motto of the Enlightenment." Rousseau described man's (own) state as Unhappy! (the) World: savage, enlightened, laws, gift

3. How would Reason and Rationality create a more humane, scientific or democratic society?

Reason or Rationality was seen to create _____ (perfect) inductive and deductive reasoning. This would allow for the creation of better tools for study and work. The study of human nature (the qualities that make humans human and the conditions that determine how humans think and _____) would help social scientists to create conditions whereby people make better choices. Thus, a shift did occur whereby "enlightened people" wanted and _____ more power because they were creating _____ change.
