Designing Your Own Classical Curriculum Laura M.

Berquist,2010-09-20 Home educator Laura Berquist presents a modern curriculum based on the time tested philosophy of the classical Trivium grammar logic and rhetoric She has given homeschoolers a valuable tool for putting together a liberal arts curriculum that feeds the soul as well as the intellect Her approach covering grades K 12 is detailed and practical and it is adaptable by parents and teachers to any situation This third revised edition includes a much expanded section for a high school curriculum and an updated list of resources for all grades The Big Book of Home Learning Volume 1 Getting Started Mary Pride,2000-09 Educational Times ,1894

The Core: Teaching Your Child the Foundations of Classical Education Leigh A. Bortins,2010-06-08 In the past correct spelling the multiplication tables the names of the state capitals and the American presidents were basics that all children were taught in school Today many children graduate without this essential knowledge Most curricula today follow a haphazard sampling of topics with a focus on political correctness instead of teaching students how to study Leigh Bortins a leading figure in the homeschooling community is having none of it She believes that there are core areas of knowledge that are essential to master Without knowing the multiplication tables children can t advance to algebra Without mastery of grammar students will have difficulty expressing themselves Without these essential building blocks of knowledge students may remember information but they will never possess a broad and deep understanding of how the world works In The Core Bortins gives parents the tools and methodology to implement a rigorous thorough and broad curriculum based on the classical model including Rote memorization to cement knowledge Systematic learning of geography historical facts and timelines Reading the great books and seminal historical documents instead of adaptations and abridged editions Rigorous training in math and the natural sciences Tested Linda Perlstein,2025-03-14 The pressure is on at schools across America In recent years reforms such as No Child Left Behind have created a new vision of education that emphasizes provable results uniformity and greater attention for floundering students Schools are expected to behave more like businesses and judged almost solely on the bottom line test scores To see if this world is producing better students Linda Perlstein immersed herself in a suburban Maryland elementary school The resulting portrait detailed human and truly thought provoking is marked by the same narrative gifts and expertise that made Not Much Just Chillin so illuminating The school once deemed a failure is now held up as an example of reform done right Perlstein explores the rewards and costs of that transformation through the experiences of the people who lived it Nine year olds meditate to activate their brains before exams and kindergartners write paragraphs Teachers attempt to address diverse needs at the same time they are expected to follow daily scripts and feel compelled to focus on topics that will be tested at the expense of those that won't The principal attempts to keep it all together in the face of immense challenges Perlstein provides the first detailed view of how new education policies are modified by human realities Tested will be talked about thought about written about and will almost certainly play an important role in the national debate as the federal education law come up for renewal Annual Report United States.
