later he was asked to return to the wilderness to babysit more fish eggs But no longer a footloose twenty year old at forty five he was the father of two young sons He left again alone straight into the heart of Montana s Bob Marshall wilderness walking a daily ten mile loop to his fish eggs through deer and elk and the highest density of grizzly bears in the lower forty eight states The Names of the Stars is not only a story of a trek through the wilderness but also an account of how an impulsive kid transformed into a father without losing his love for the wilds From loon calls echoing across Northwood lakes to the grim realities of life guarding in the Nevada desert through the isolation of Indian Creek and years spent running the Snake and Rio Grande as a river ranger Pete seeks out the source of this passion for wildness as well as explores fatherhood and mortality and all the costs and risks and rewards of life lived on its own terms Inspiring Jim Lynch author of Before the Wind A coming of age book for adults it is a tightrope walk between holding on to who you are and letting go a little for something you love even more Kenyon Review Yarn Kyoko Mori,2009-11-01 A memoir of crossing cultures losing love and finding home by a New York Times Notable author in her prime As steadily and quietly as her marriage falls apart so Kyoko Mori s understanding of knitting deepens From the flawed school mittens made in her native Japan where needlework is used as a way to prepare women for marriage and silence to the beautiful unmatched patterns of cardigans hats and shawls made in the American Midwest Kyoko draws the connection between knitting and the new life she tried to establish in the U S From the suicide of her mother to the last empty days of her marriage Kyoko finds a way to begin again on her own terms Interspersed with fact and history about knitting throughout the narrative touchingly contemplates the nature of love loss and what holds a marriage together In the tradition of M F K Fisher s The Gastronomical Me Joan Didion s Where I Was From and Michael Pollan s The Botany of Desire Mori examines a specific subject to understand human nature when to unravel when to begin again when to drop the stitch and when to declare it s finished Designer's Guide to Japanese Patterns Jeanne Allen,1989 Needlepoint and Pattern: Themes and Variations Gloria Katzenberg,1974 The World Of Cross Stitching August 2017 Magazines Global, The World Of Cross Stitching August 2017 Just Cross Stitch Christmas Ornaments 2016 Magazines Global, Just Cross Stitch Christmas Ornaments 2016 The International Studio Charles Holme,Guy Eglinton,Peyton Boswell,William Bernard McCormick,Henry James Whigham,1928 The World Of Cross Stitching Christmas 2018 Magazines Global, The World Of Cross Stitching Christmas 2018 Ukrainian Arts Ukrainian Youth's League of North America,1955 The Fire Doll James Ulmer,2017-08-07 The stories in The Fire Doll investigate the notion that our experience can be richer more inclusive and sometimes more unsettling than the life prescribed by the normal daylight sense of reality American writing has often been engaged with elements of mystery and the uncanny and the American Dream has always had its corresponding nightmare These stories feature haunted landscapes places where violence and tragedy have left their marks a man is subsumed by his vision of falling pine straw a camera captures something the eye alone can t perceive and a dead girl leads an unsuspecting boy to a killer s burial ground In the title story a Houston homicide detective is haunted literally and figuratively by the death of his partner In order to redeem himself he must hunt down her killer and confront his own complicity in her death Written in the tradition of dark American masters like Hawthorne and Henry James the tales in this collection occupy the uncertain borderland between the living and the dead Something on the far side of the stream caught his eye A woman a girl really stood in the spot where the dog had vanished Even to the boy the girl seemed instantly out of place With her knees bent in toward each other and her long legs splayed out there was something awkward or coltish about her She wore a top with horizontal black and white stripes a short black skirt fishnet stockings and ankle high black boots with pointed toes and spike heels The boy squinted and cocked his head uncertain of what he was seeing What was she doing there Her dark red hair chopped off at asymmetrical angles stuck up from her head in every direction He couldn't have been confronted by a stranger sight if Pinocchio or the White Queen had stepped suddenly out of the trees The girl seemed somehow unstrung the strength drained from her dangling arms and legs and the boy thought of a marionette he'd once seen hanging from a peg on the wall of a puppet master's shop She stared dejectedly at the ground around her feet from the book
