Protection of Geographical Indications in China Xinzhe Song, 2021-11-23 For some time now there has been conflict concerning the role in the global marketplace of certain agricultural or handcrafted products of specific geographical origin whether they should come under trademark law as favoured by common law countries such as the United States or under the geographical indications GI system developed in France and subsequently promoted by the European Union EU At this moment China is in the eye of the storm Taking fully into account the legislative and judicial gaps in China's compromised embrace of the GI concept this book shows how the Chinese case brings to prominence fundamental issues relating to the functional dissimilarity between trademarks and GIs the treatment of the terroir concept the role of GIs in rural development and the challenges of adopting the French and European model in other countries especially in East Asia Providing detailed information on how GIs are registered protected and managed in China France and the EU the book includes such practical analysis as the following comparison between the Chinese and European GI systems to highlight differences in essential elements for GI registration and protection mistakes and errors arising from forcing the GI function into trademark law the increasingly larger scope of EU GI protection protection of collective marks containing GIs and the extension of GI protection to handicrafts who is responsible for the protection of each registered name and who can sue for infringement and legislative options for future GI protection in China Recognizing not only that GIs protect consumers against fraud and producers against unfair competition but also that the goals include the preservation of rural development cultural heritage and traditional knowledge as well as environmental and ecological protection this book provides a comprehensive reference on legal tools available for policymakers legal practitioners researchers and local producers concerned with GI or trademark issues in China France or the EU It will prove greatly helpful to corporate lawyers filing international registration applications and taking legal action It will also be of inestimable value to officials in a variety of countries that are considering developing or improving systems to enhance the value of terroir products and to academics interested in intellectual property law trademark law agriculture policy GI legislation or World Trade Organization WTO rules 2013

Global Food Policy Report Fan, Shenggen, Polman, Paul, Kishore, Avinash, Joshi, Pramod Kumar, Hoddinott, John F., Ringler, Claudia, Cenacchi, Nicola, Koo, Jawoo, Robertson, Richard, Fisher, Myles, Cox, Cindy, Perez, Nicostrato, Garrett, Karen, Rosegrant, Mark W., Beintema, Nienke, Stads, Gert-Jan, Torero, Maximo, Gillespie, Stuart, Badiane, Ousmane, Makombe, Tsitsi, Collins, Julia, Breisinger, Clemens, Al-Riffai, Perrihan, Ecker, Olivier, Saade, Maurice, Akramov, Kamiljon, Cohen-Cline, Noah, Chen, Kevin, Timmer, Peter, Díaz-Bonilla, Eugenio, 2014-03-12 This 2013 Global Food Policy Report is the third in an annual series that provides an in depth look at major food policy developments and events Initiated in response to resurgent interest in food and nutrition security the series offers a yearly overview of the food policy developments that have contributed to or hindered progress in achieving food and nutrition security It reviews what happened in food policy and why examines key challenges and opportunities shares new evidence and knowledge and highlights emerging issues Human Capital and Development

Ju-Ho Lee, Hyeok Jeong, Song Chang Hong, During recent decades Korea has been one of only a handful of countries that have made the successful transformation to become a developed nation by simultaneously achieving persistent economic growth combined with a democratic political system Experts and political leaders worldwide have attributed this achievement to investments in people or in other words the power of education Whilst numerous books have highlighted the role of industrial policies technological growth and international trade in Korea's development process this is one of the first to focus on the role of human capital It shows how the accumulation of human capital aided transformation and helps explain the policies strategies and challenges that Korea faces now and in the future Cities and Agriculture

Henk de Zeeuw, Pay Drechsel, 2015-09-16 As people increasingly migrate to urban settings and more than half of the world's population now lives in cities it is vital to plan and provide for sustainable and resilient food systems which reflect this challenge This volume presents experience and evidence based state of the art chapters on the key dimensions of urban food challenges and types of intra and peri urban agriculture The book provides urban planners local policy makers and urban development practitioners with an overview of crucial aspects of urban food systems based on an up to date review of research results and practical experiences in both developed and developing countries By doing so the international team of authors provides a balanced textbook for students of the growing number of courses on sustainable agriculture food and urban studies as well as a solid basis for well informed policy making planning and implementation regarding the development of sustainable resilient and just urban food systems

Informal Sector Innovations Mammo Muchie, Saradindu Bhaduri, Angathevar Baskaran, Fayaz Sheikh, 2017-10-02 It is well documented that the space of informal economic activity is rising across the globe This rise has been particularly significant in the least developed and developing countries especially after the onset of neo liberal policies and withdrawal of welfare state There has also been a shift in academic thinking on informal sector with attempts being made to understand the contribution of informal sector in generating employment and economic growth rather than focusing solely on exploitative labour conditions in these economic activities Indeed with the retreat of welfare state and the introduction of contract labour in the formal sector many issues related to occupational hazards and improper labour conditions do not remain unique to the informal sectors of the economy particularly in less developed countries This volume addresses a specific concern the issue of knowledge generation and innovative activities which lies at the core of sustained competitive advantage of these activities The chapters in this book were originally published in the African Journal of Science Technology Innovation and Development

Critical Role of Animal Science Research in Food Security and Sustainability National Research Council, Division on Earth and Life Sciences, Board on Agriculture and Natural Resources, Policy and Global Affairs, Science and Technology for Sustainability Program, Committee on Considerations for the Future of Animal Science Research, 2015-03-31 By 2050 the world's population is projected to grow by one third reaching between 9 and 10 billion With globalization and expected growth in global affluence a substantial increase in per capita meat dairy and fish consumption is also anticipated The demand for calories from animal products will nearly double highlighting the critical importance of the world's animal agriculture system Meeting the nutritional needs of this population and its demand for animal products will require a significant investment of resources as well as policy changes that are supportive of agricultural production Ensuring sustainable agricultural growth will be essential to addressing this global challenge to food security

Critical Role of Animal Science Research in Food Security and Sustainability identifies areas of research and development technology and resource needs for research in the field of animal agriculture both nationally and internationally This report assesses the global demand for products of animal origin in 2050 within the framework of ensuring global food security evaluates how climate change and natural resource constraints may impact the ability to meet future global demand for animal products in sustainable production systems and identifies factors that may impact the ability of the United States to meet demand for animal products including the need for trained human capital product safety and quality and effective communication and adoption of new knowledge information and technologies The agricultural sector worldwide faces numerous daunting challenges that will require innovations new technologies and new ways of approaching agriculture if the food feed and fiber needs of the global population are to be met The recommendations of Critical Role of Animal Science Research in Food Security and Sustainability will inform a new roadmap for animal science research to meet the challenges of sustainable animal production in the 21st century

Shifting Cultivation Policies Malcolm Cairns,2017-11-13 Shifting cultivation supports around 200 million people in the Asia Pacific region alone It is often regarded as a primitive and inefficient form of agriculture that destroys forests causes soil erosion and robs lowland areas of water These misconceptions and their policy implications need to be challenged Swidden farming could support carbon sequestration and conservation of land biodiversity and cultural heritage This comprehensive analysis of past and present policy highlights successes and failures and emphasizes the importance of getting it right for the future This book is enhanced with supplementary resources The addendum chapters can be found at www.cabi.org/openresources/91797

Gardens of History and Imagination Gretchen Poiner,Sybil Jack,2016-06-03 Whether on the ground or in the mind gardens carry meaning They reflect social and aesthetic values and may express hope anticipation or grief Throughout history they have provided a means of physical survival In creating and maintaining gardens people construe and construct a relationship with their environment But there is no single meaning carried in the word garden as idea and practice it reflects cultural differences in beliefs values and social organisation It embodies personal community even national ways of seeing and being in the world There are ten essays in Gardens of History and Imagination each of which examines the role of gardens and gardening in the settlement of New South Wales and in growing a colony and a state They explore the significance of gardens for the health of the colony for its economy for the construction of social order and moral worth No less do they reveal the significance of forming and reforming personal identities in this process For the immigrants gardening was an act of settlement it was also a statement of possession for individuals and for Britain For a long time it was with memories of home often selective and idealised that settlers made gardens but as the colony developed its own character so did gardening possibilities and practices Frederick Watts and the Founding of Penn State Roger L.

Williams,2021-04-26 Frederick Watts came to prominence during the nineteenth century as a lawyer and a railroad company president but his true interests lay in agricultural improvement and in raising the economic social and political standing of Pennsylvania s farmers After being elected founding president of The Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society in 1851 he used his position to advocate vigorously for the establishment of an agricultural college that would employ science to improve farming practices He went on to secure the charter for the Farmers High School of Pennsylvania which would eventually become the Pennsylvania State University This biography explores Watts s role in founding and leading Penn State through its formative years Watts adroitly directed the school as it was sited built and financed opening for students in 1859 He hired the brilliant Evan Pugh as founding president who with Watts quickly made it the first successful agricultural college in America But for all his success in launching the institution Watts nearly brought it to the brink of closure through a series of ruinous presidential appointments that led to an abandonment of the land grant focus on agriculture and engineering Watts s influence in the agricultural modernization movement and his impact on land grant education in the United States both in his role with Penn State and later as US commissioner of agriculture made him a leader in the history of agricultural and higher education Roger L Williams s compelling biography of Watts reestablishes him in this legacy providing a balanced analysis of his missteps and accomplishments
