Touring Performance and Global Exchange 1850-1960 Gilli Bush-Bailey, Kate Flaherty, 2021-12-30 This collection

uncovers connections and coincidences that challenge the old stories of pioneering performers who crossed the Atlantic and Pacific oceans from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century It investigates songlines drama opera music theatre dance and circus removing traditional boundaries that separate studies of performance and celebrating difference and transformation in style intention and delivery Well known or obscure travelling performers faced dangers at sea and hazardous journeys across land Their tracks made in pursuit of fortune and fame intersected with those made by earlier storytellers in search for food Touring Performance and Global Exchange takes a fresh look at such tracks the material remains demonstrating that moving performance does far more than transfer repertoires and people it transforms them Touring performance has too often been conceived in diasporic terms as a fixed product radiating out from a cultural centre This collection maps different patterns ones that comprise reversed flows cross currents and continually proliferating centres of meaning in complex networks of global exchange This collection will be of great interest to scholars and students in theatre music drama studies and cultural history
