QUESTION 1

Sara is an aspiring chef who dreams of opening her own bakery. She recently graduated from culinary school and has saved up some money to start her business. Sara has found the perfect spot for her bakery but needs to calculate the costs involved in setting it up.

- 1.1 The rent for the bakery space is R 8 500 per month. If Sara plans to rent the space for one year and 6 months, how much will she spend on rent in total? (2)
- 1.2 Sara needs to purchase baking equipment, including an oven, mixer, and refrigerator, which costs a total of R 9 800. If she plans to pay 30% of the total cost upfront as a deposit and finance the remaining amount with a loan.
 - 1.2.1) How much money does she need to pay initially with the 30%? (7)
 - 1.2.2) Calculate the total cost of the baking equipment if the amount after the deposit needs to be paid back over two years at 1% simple interest. (3)
- 1.3 Sara plans to hire two assistant bakers to help with baking and customer service. If each assistant earns R 75 per hour and works 40 hours per week, how much will Sara spend on labor costs per month? (3)
- 1.4 To attract customers, Sara plans to offer a variety of baked goods, including cakes, pastries, and bread. If she estimates that the cost of ingredients for each item is as follows: R25 for a cake, R18 for pastries, and R22 for bread, and she wants to maintain a 30% profit margin on each item, what should Sara price each item to ensure a profit? (5) lesson you're planning by distinguishing between conceptual understanding, procedural fluency, and transfer. Select worthwhile tasks and materials that make the best use of representations, manipulatives, and other instructional tools and resources. Choose the format of your lesson using reasoning and number routines, games, whole class discussion, and pairs or small group work. Anticipate student misconceptions and evaluate understanding using a variety of formative assessment techniques. Decide how you'll launch your lesson, facilitate questioning, encourage productive struggle, and close your lesson. Included is a lesson planning template and examples from kindergarten, first, and second grade classrooms. Chapter by chapter, the decision-making strategies empower teachers to plan math lessons strategically to teach with intention and confidence and to build an exceptional foundation in math for all students.

International Perspectives on Teaching and Learning for Mathematical Literacy, 2024-10-02 Mathematics plays an important role in today's world and is used in daily life more than is often appreciated. Mathematical literacy denotes the competence to deal with the mathematical issues of life in modern society. The underlying purpose of this book is to support the development of rich understandings and practices of how an education for mathematical literacy can be realised. The collected works emerging from several educational systems offer a fresh perspective on mathematical literacy and the chapters include practical examples that teachers, pre-service teachers, and teacher educators might adapt to their own needs.

Teaching Learners with Visual Impairment Maximus M. Sefotho, Ronél Ferreira, 2020-12-31 This book Teaching Learners with Visual Impairment focuses on holistic support to learners with visual impairment in and beyond the classroom and school context Special attention is given to classroom practice learning support curriculum differentiation and assessment practices to mention but a few areas of focus covered in the book In this manner this book makes a significant contribution to the existing body of knowledge on the implementation of inclusive education policy with learners affected by visual impairment Commonsense Methods for Children with Special Needs and Disabilities Peter Westwood,2020-11-25 This fully revised and updated eighth edition of Peter Westwood s book offers practical advice and strategies for meeting the challenge of inclusive teaching Based on the latest international research from the field it offers practical advice on both new and well tried evidence based approaches and strategies for teaching students with a wide range of difficulties As well as covering special educational needs learning difficulties and disabilities in detail chapters also explore topics such as self management and autonomy managing behaviour and social skills The book offers sound pedagogical practices and strategies for adapting curriculum content designing teaching materials differentiating instruction for mixed ability classes and implementing inclusive assessment of learning Key features of this new edition include Additional information on linking all aspects of teaching to a Response to Intervention Model A focus on the increasing importance of digital technology in supporting the learning of students with special educational needs and disabilities Up to date resource lists for each chapter for those who wish to pursue a particular topic in greater depth Reflecting cutting edge international research and teaching practices this is an invaluable resource for practising and trainee teachers teaching assistants and other educational professionals looking to support students with special educational needs and disabilities Resources in Education ,2001-10 Must Inclusion be Special? Jonathan Rix,2015-06-05 Must Inclusion be Special examines the discord between special and inclusive education and why this discord can only be resolved when wider inequalities within mainstream education are confronted It calls for a shift in our approach to provision from seeing it as a conglomeration of individualised needs to identifying it as a conglomeration of collective needs The author examines the political medical and cultural tendency of current times to focus upon the individual and contrasts this with the necessity to focus on context This book distinguishes the theoretical perspectives that are often associated with special or inclusive education and the broad range of interests which depend upon their ongoing development This examination leads to a problematisation of mainstream education provision our understanding of why social inequities emerge and how additional support can overcome these inequities Further chapters explore the underlying challenges which emerge from our use and understanding of the notions of special and inclusive outlining an alternative approach based upon a community of provision This approach recognises the interconnectedness of services and the significance of context and it encapsulates the aspiration of much international legislation for participation and inclusion for all But it also assumes that we tend towards diffuse practices services policies settings and roles spread across provision which is variously inclusive and exclusionary In seeking to create equitable participation for all support needs to shift its focus from the individual to this diffuse network of contexts Must Inclusion be Special emerges from the research base which

problematizes inclusion and special education drawing upon examples from many countries It also refers to the author's research into pedagogy language and policy and his experiences as a teacher and the parent of a child identified with special educational needs Chapter 2 Allocations Plan for the State of California ,1994 ECGBL 2018 12th European Conference on Game-Based Learning Dr Melanie Ciussi,2018-10-04
