

Component 1, Section B: Sample Exam Paper

Q1: Read the poem below, Living Space, by Imtiaz Dharker.

Living Space is a poem about hope. How does Dharker present hope in the poem? Remember to refer to the contexts of the poem in your answer. [15]

Q2: Choose one other poem from the anthology in which the poet also writes about hope.

Compare the way the poet presents hope in your chosen poem with the way Dharker presents it in Living Space. [25]

In your answer to Q2 you should compare:

- The content and structure of the poems - what they are about and how they are organised
- How the writers create effects, using appropriate terminology where relevant
- The contexts of the poems and how these may have influenced the ideas in them

Living Space

There are just not enough straight lines. That is the problem.
Nothing is flat
or parallel. Beams balance crookedly on supports thrust off the vertical.
Nails clutch at open seams.
The whole structure leans dangerously towards the miraculous.

Into this rough frame,
someone has squeezed
a living space

and even dared to place
these eggs in a wire basket, fragile curves of white hung out over the dark edge
of a slanted universe,
gathering the light
into themselves,
as if they were the bright, thin walls of faith.

Elucidating Essay Poetry Denny JA, 2020-07-01 Essay poetry is only one variation among many forms of poetry that already exist and which will exist in the future I does not pretend or claim to be superior or inferior to other forms of poetry It also does not purport to either dominate or homogenize poetry It is just one rose from the exuberant garden of Eden which is filled with many other types of flowers It is just one deer of a certain species that dwells among many other kinds of wildlife It is only one color orange among a rainbow which is enriched by a variety of other colors

Anne Spencer between Worlds Noelle Morrisette, 2023-02-15 Anne Spencer between Worlds provides an indispensable reassessment of a critically neglected figure Looking beyond the poetry she published during the Harlem Renaissance Noelle Morrisette provides a new critical lens for interpreting Spencer's expansive life and imagination through her archives giving particular focus to her manuscripts authored from 1940 to 1975 Through its attentiveness to Spencer's published and unpublished work her work as a librarian and an activist and the political dimensions of her writing Anne Spencer between Worlds transforms our understanding of Spencer It offers a sustained examination of poetry and ecology and the relationships among race gender and archives through its analysis of the manuscripts that Spencer produced and revised throughout her life Morrisette argues that the expansiveness depth and range of Spencer's writing has not been appreciated because she did not publish this incomplete ongoing work She also demonstrates that careful reading of the manuscripts challenges many of the assumptions that have governed Spencer's reception. In Anne Spencer between Worlds Spencer emerges as a deeply engaged political poet who used the creative possibilities of the unpublished manuscript to explore pressing political and cultural concerns and to develop experimental cultural forms. In her unpublished manuscripts Spencer pushed beyond the lyric mode to develop experimental forms that were alert to the expressive possibilities of the epic prose correspondence and mixed genres. Indeed Spencer's manuscripts serve as witnesses of historical and poetic junctions for the poet and for the attentive reader of her archives.

English Poems: The nineteenth century Walter Cochrane Bronson, 1907 The Songs We Know Best Karin Roffman, 2017-06-13. The first biography of an American master, The Songs We Know Best is the first comprehensive biography of the early life of John Ashbery, the winner of nearly every major American literary award. It reveals the unusual ways he drew on the details of his youth to populate the poems that made him one of the most original and unpredictable forces of the last century in arts and letters. Drawing on unpublished correspondence, juvenilia, and childhood diaries, as well as more than one hundred hours of conversation with the poet, Karin Roffman offers an insightful portrayal of Ashbery during the twenty-eight years that led up to his stunning debut Some Trees, chosen by W. H. Auden for the 1955 Yale Younger Poets Prize. Roffman shows how Ashbery's poetry arose from his early lessons both on the family farm and in 1950s New York City: a bohemian existence that teemed with artistic fervor and radical innovations inspired by Dada and surrealism, as well as lifelong friendships with painters and writers such as Frank O'Hara, Jane Freilicher, Nell Blaine, Kenneth Koch, James Schuyler, and Willem de Kooning. Ashbery has a reputation for being enigmatic and playfully elusive, but Roffman's biography reveals his deft mining of his early life for the flint and tinder from which his provocative later poems grew, producing a body of work that he calls the experience of experience: an intertwining of life and art in extraordinarily intimate ways.
