

COLD WAR REVISION NOTES

1. US, Britain and USSR relations in 1945

Conflicting ideologies:

- Communism vs Capitalism
- They were not compatible because they both wanted different things and each viewed the expansion of the other as a threat
- Both Communist East and Capitalist West saw the need to expand its own power and this quickly translated into a global aspiration
- The ideological conviction and desire for national security increased creating driving obsessions for each side

Communism 	Capitalism

	Mecathivism

The End of the Cold War: 1985-1991 Robert Service, 2015-11-10 On 26 December 1991 the hammer and sickle flag was lowered over the Kremlin for the last time Yet just six years earlier when Mikhail Gorbachev became general secretary of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and chose Eduard Shevardnadze as his foreign minister the Cold War seemed like a permanent fixture in world politics Until its denouement no Western or Soviet politician foresaw that the standoff between the two superpowers after decades of struggle over every aspect of security politics economics and ideas would end within the lifetime of the current generation Nor was it at all obvious that that the Soviet political leadership would undertake a huge internal reform of the USSR or that the threat of a nuclear Armageddon could or would be peacefully wound down Drawing on pioneering archival research Robert Service's gripping investigation of the final years of the Cold War pinpoints the extraordinary relationships between Ronald Reagan Gorbachev George Shultz and Shevardnadze who found ways to cooperate during times of exceptional change around the world A story of American pressure and Soviet long term decline and overstretch The End of the Cold War 1985 1991 shows how a small but skillful group of statesmen grew determined to end the Cold War on their watch and transformed the global political landscape irreversibly

Chicago The Dissent Papers Hannah Gurman, 2012-01-24 Beginning with the Cold War and concluding with the 2003 invasion of Iraq Hannah Gurman explores the overlooked opposition of U S diplomats to American foreign policy in the latter half of the twentieth century During America s reign as a dominant world power U S presidents and senior foreign policy officials largely ignored or rejected their diplomats reports memos and telegrams especially when they challenged key policies relating to the Cold War China and the wars in Vietnam and Iraq The Dissent Papers recovers these diplomats invaluable perspective and their commitment to the transformative power of diplomatic writing Gurman showcases the work of diplomats whose opposition enjoyed some success George Kennan John Stewart Service John Paton Davies George Ball and John Brady Kiesling all caught the attention of sitting presidents and policymakers achieving temporary triumphs yet ultimately failing to change the status quo Gurman follows the circulation of documents within the State Department the National Security Council the C I A and the military and she details the rationale behind The Dissent Channel instituted by the State Department in the 1970s to both encourage and contain dissent Advancing an alternative narrative of modern U S history she connects the erosion of the diplomatic establishment and the weakening of the diplomatic writing tradition to larger political and ideological trends while at the same time foreshadowing the resurgent significance of diplomatic writing in the age of Wikileaks

Cold War Women Helen Laville, 2002 For too long American women have been hidden in the history of the Cold War In Cold War women Helen Laville recovers their significance by examining the activities and ambitions of American women s organisations in the long period of uneasy peace After the Second World War women around the globe claimed that to avoid more death and devastation in the Atomic Age they must promote internationalism and strive together for a peaceful future However as the Cold War escalated American women abandoned the internationalist outlook of their foreign sisters in favour of solidarity with their national brothers Far from being advocates of internationalism many of these women became active agents for Americanism This fascinating study will be invaluable to those in the field of gender and women s history cultural studies and American history emerging around the world They tackle such fundamental questions as What is the future of the international system as we approach the twenty first century What will be the fate of disintegrating nation states and how will the international community respond Has the nation state outlived its usefulness Are we beginning to witness the complete breakdown of the international system The contributors are Ali Alatas Indonesia Tariq Aziz Iraq James A Baker III United States Benazir Bhutto Pakistan Boutros Boutros Ghali United Nations Fernando Henrique Cardoso Brazil Osama El Baz Egypt Eduardo Frei Chile Alberto Fujimori Peru Rachid Ghannouchi eminent Islamic thinker Mikhail Sergeyevich Gorbachev Russian Federation Kamal Kharrazi Iran Andrei Kozyrev Russian Federation Leonid Kuchma Ukraine Nelson Mandela South Africa Nursultan Nazarbayev Kazakhstan Olusegun Obasanjo Nigeria Muammar El Qadhafi Libya Fidel Ramos Philippines Shri P V Narasimha Rao India The Specter: Original Essays on the Cold War and the Origins of McCarthyism Robert Griffith, Athan G.
