Sixty-Three Ordinary Paragraphs with Life Lessons and Thought Questions by an Ordinary Guy Jon P. Van Deinse,2014-02 In this personal narrative author Jon P Van Deinse explores a variety of topics relating to his life and his thoughts on some contemporary topics He lost his innocence at a Catholic school at the hands of an abusive priest an event that would inform much of the rest of his life Jon didn t tell anyone about the abuse until twenty years later and many of his struggles may be related to that early trauma He has been diagnosed with a wide range of mental illnesses from depression to borderline personality disorder In this candid narrative he explores his life as a child adolescent and adult including the joys and challenges of being a parent He examines his suicide attempt his shock treatment for depression and the racing thoughts that constantly go through his brain He follows up each of his experiences with life lessons and questions to consider so you can learn from your own challenges improving your understanding of yourself and others

Why This Time When I Remember Homer Elias Calhoun Jr.,2024-09-30 The title of my book derives from a horrible criminal at that has taken place in my life over a span of almost four decades but now just coming into fruition Unfortunately as children me my brother and sisters and also my parents were not aware of the criminal acts taking place in the family for it was kept hidden for years Clearance and I were not able to process this criminal activity as it was happening over the years in our lifetime we watch quietly and silently always on the run Now that we are young adults we remember This is how the title of my book came to life Based on a true story for we were strangers in our town Sault after like a dangerous prey in my own home town

Rocking Your World: The Emotional Journey into Critical Discourses ,2008-01-01 Rocking Your World The Emotional Journey into Critical Discourses is an introductory text that emerged from the belief that we often learn best through personal narrative and story This collection of real stories connects critical theory and critical pedagogy with personal transformation It is an experiential primer in how to navigate a developing appreciation of how silent and sometimes not so silent machinations of power align themselves along axes of gender race class sexual orientation and global position amongst others to both conceal and perpetuate injustice and oppression In this book twelve authors share personal reflections of how various critical discourse communities have impacted their lives They explore a range of professional family and social barriers to personal growth as teachers professional researchers and everyday people they give us glimpses into the impact of positionality the balance between activism and intellectual rigor the obstacles to teaching critically and more This book would be an ideal complement to traditional texts and would provide countless opportunities to generate the kind of personal introspection and dialogue that can make studying critical pedagogy and other critical discourses a transformative experience It is a must read for any teacher or student interested in the power of critical theories to transform how we see the world in which we live
