Lenoir, 2015-04-07 A huge bestseller in Europe Frederic Lenoir s Happiness is an exciting journey that examines how history s greatest philosophers and religious figures have answered life s most fundamental question What is happiness and how do I achieve it From the ancient Greeks on from Aristotle Plato and Chuang Tzu to the Buddha Jesus and Muhammad from Voltaire Spinoza and Schopenhauer to Kant Freud and even modern neuroscientists Lenoir considers the idea that true and lasting happiness is indeed possible In clear language Lenoir concisely surveys what the greatest thinkers of all time have had to say on the subject and with charming prose raises provocative questions Do we have a duty to be happy Is there a connection between individual and collective happiness Is happiness contagious Is there a difference between pleasure and happiness Can unhappiness and happiness coexist Does our happiness depend on our luck Understanding how civilization s best minds have answered those questions Lenoir suggests not only makes for a fascinating reading experience but also provides a way for us to see us how happiness that most elusive of feelings is attainable in our own lives Happiness

Matthieu Ricard, 2015-01-01 A molecular biologist turned Buddhist monk described by scientists as the happiest man alive demonstrates how to develop the inner conditions for true happiness Towards a New International Monetary Order Koen Byttebier, 2017-05-25 This book presents a thorough and critical evaluation of the monetary and financial system prevalent in Western economies Further it seeks to explain why this system so often leads to financial crises and why they have been dealt with unsatisfactorily in the past In order to provide answers to these questions the book investigates the monetary and financial system from a multidisciplinary perspective with a strong focus on the ethical value choices which throughout history have shaped the monetary and financial legal system In the closing chapters the book also advances a detailed proposal for a New Global Monetary Order one based on altruism as an alternative to the neoliberal values dominant today

Robson,2025-02-04 Happiness and the question of how to define measure and facilitate it has become a key theme in political economic and social discourses in recent decades in France and elsewhere yet research on happiness in French culture and film has been limited Given that happiness is clearly gendered this book looks critically at the ways in which contemporary French women s writing and film give voice to and critique conceptions of happiness Analysing French and francophone women s writing including Nina Bouraoui H l ne Cixous Annie Ernaux Camille Laurens Le la Slimani Delphine de Vigan and film including Claire Denis C line Sciamma and Agn s Varda I focus on five main areas images of happiness in consumer and

Internet culture happiness and intimacy in the family and the home queering happiness migrated happiness and happiness and ageing Whilst the happiness turn is problematic the desire for happiness however fraught matters and I show how representations of happiness in contemporary French women s writing and film offer alternative conceptions of happiness that enable us to rethink happiness in more critical diverse and inclusive terms
