Rees,2022-03-31 Mervyn Himbury migrated to Melbourne Australia in 1959 Through the sheer force of his personality he led the transformation of a small impoverished Baptist seminary to the premier Baptist institution in Australia From the humble life of a Welsh mining village Himbury proceeded to university studies in Cardiff and then Oxford The story begins with the cultural and religious background of Himbury s early life as a Welsh Baptist exploring the distinctive ethos of the institutions where he studied during and just after the Second World War Himbury s lifelong passion for history is revealed through an examination of his Oxford thesis and subsequent publications about the puritan groups from which the Baptist movement arose In Melbourne he quickly became known as a brilliant preacher and media presenter As professor and principal of Whitley College Himbury s central concern was ministerial education that would serve the churches in a rapidly changing world For Himbury the central task of ministry was preaching and it is with this dimension of his life that the biography begins and concludes drawing upon sermon records to demonstrate his commitment as a servant of the word of God Weddings, Funerals and Dedications Dr. Nathan Ogan,2016-06-16 This handbook is intended to provide ministers with some resources for service within the church and local community Baptist Commonwealth ,1909 The Stomatologist ,1902 Minutes of the ... General Conference of the Freewill Baptist Connection in North America ... Free Will Baptists (1780?-1911). General Conference,1898 Sacred Mission, Worldly Ambition Adele Oltman,2012-01-01 Using Savannah Georgia as a case study Sacred Mission Worldly Ambition tells the story of the rise and decline of Black Christian Nationalism This nationalism emerged from the experiences of segregation as an intersection between the sacred world of religion and church and the secular world of business The premise of Black Christian Nationalism was a belief in a dual understanding of redemption at the same time earthly and otherworldly and the conviction that black Christians once delivered from psychic spiritual and material want would release all of America from the suffering that prevented it from achieving its noble ideals The study s use of local sources in Savannah especially behind the scenes church records provides a rare glimpse into church life and ritual depicting scenes never before described Blending history ethnography and Geertzian dramaturgy it traces the evolution of black southern society from a communitarian nationalist system of hierarchy patriarchy and interclass fellowship to an individualistic one that accompanied the appearance of a new black civil society Although not a study of the civil rights movement Sacred Mission Worldly Ambition advances a bold revisionist interpretation of black religion at the eve of the movement It shows that the institutional primacy of the churches had to give way to a more diversified secular sphere before an overtly politicized struggle for freedom could take place The unambiguously political movement of the 1950s and 1960s that drew on black Christianity and radiated from many black churches was possible only when the churches came to exert less control over members quotidian lives A Sarah Mills Hodge Fund Publication      Protestant Nonconformity and Christian Missions Martin Wellings,2014-02-01 The aim of the book is to explore some of the contributions made by Protestant Nonconformity to Christian missions The occasion of the conference which gave rise to the volume was the centenary of the Edinburgh Missionary Conference of 1910 but the topics treated here deliberately range more widely covering missions in Britain and the wider world from the eighteenth to the twentieth century COMMENDATIONS Martin Wellings is to be warmly thanked for gathering such an informative and stimulating collection of papers They are scholarly and accessible and deserve to be widely read Alan P F Sell University of Wales Trinity Saint David UK      Counter-Cultural Communities Keith G. Jones,Ian M. Randall,2008-12-05 This book presents six ground breaking Master s degree dissertations that have been done in the area of Baptist and Anabaptist Studies through the International Baptist Theological Seminary IBTS Prague The focus is continental Europe with a particular emphasis on eastern Europe The material is largely culled from primary sources The topics covered include the Theology of Baptist Believers in Bulgaria 1920 1939 the Pentecostal Dilemma in the Finnish Baptist Union 1930 1953 Moldovan Baptists 1940 1965 the State and the Baptist Churches in the USSR 1960 1980 Baptist Mission Efforts in Bosnia Herzegovina and the Life and Convictions of Hans Meier 1902 1992 Most of these topics have never been covered in English before In the case of the studies of former Communist countries this kind of research has only been possible in the last decade      Parting the Waters Taylor Branch,2007-04-16 In Parting the Waters the first volume of his essential America in the King Years series Pulitzer Prize winner Taylor Branch gives a compelling masterfully told The Wall Street Journal account of Martin Luther King s early years and rise to greatness Hailed as the most masterful story ever told of the American Civil Rights Movement Parting the Waters is destined to endure for generations Moving from the fiery political baptism of Martin Luther King Jr to the corridors of Camelot where the Kennedy brothers weighed demands for justice against the deceptions of J Edgar Hoover here is a vivid tapestry of America torn and finally transformed by a revolutionary struggle unequalled since the Civil War Taylor Branch provides an unsurpassed portrait of King s rise to greatness and illuminates the stunning courage and private conflict the deals maneuvers betrayals and rivalries that determined history behind closed doors at boycotts and sit ins on bloody freedom rides and through siege and murder Epic in scope and impact Branch s chronicle definitively captures one of the nation s most crucial passages      Baptists in World Service American Baptist Foreign Mission Society,1918      The Antipede Baptists of Georgetown County, South Carolina, 1710-2010 Roy Talbert, Jr.,Meggan A. Farish,2014-12-18 The Antipede Baptists of Georgetown South Carolina 1710 2010 is the history of the First Baptist Church of Georgetown South Carolina as well as the history of Baptists in the colony and state Roy Talbert Jr and Meggan A Farish detail Georgetown Baptists long and tumultuous history which began with the migration of Baptist exhorter William Screven from England to Maine and then to South Carolina during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Screven established the First Baptist Church in Charleston in the 1690s before moving to Georgetown in 1710 His son Elisha laid out the town in 1734 and helped found an interdenominational meeting house on the Black River where the Baptists worshipped until a proper edifice was constructed in Georgetown the Antipedo Baptist Church named for the congregation's opposition to infant baptism Three of the most recognized figures in southern Baptist history Oliver Hart Richard Furman and Edmond Botsford played vital roles in keeping the Georgetown church alive through the American Revolution The nineteenth century was particularly trying for the Georgetown Baptists and the church came very close to shutting its doors on several occasions The authors reveal that for most of the nineteenth century a majority of church members were African American slaves Not until World War II did Georgetown witness any real growth Since then the congregation has blossomed into one of the largest churches in the convention and rightfully occupies an important place in the history of the Baptist denomination The Antipedo Baptists of Georgetown is an invaluable contribution to southern religious history as well as the history of race relations before and after the Civil War in the American South The Baptist Home Mission Monthly, 1907

The Body Broken Robert Benson, 2004-08-17 The Body Broken is an honest and moving meditation on the Gospel imperative to love one another as brothers and sisters even as we choose to live and express our faith in differing ways A lifelong Christian and seeker Robert Benson has shared the prayers rituals conversations and practices of many different denominations His broad range of ecumenical experiences have led to moments of great joy and deep fellowship but they have also opened his eyes to the misunderstanding and the intolerance that constantly threaten to dismember the whole Body of Christ Benson writes longingly about the things of the faith that bind us together and gracefully about the things that keep us apart He recounts his own journey from Nazarene to Methodist to Episcopalian and introduces us to the people and the differing expressions of faith he encountered along the way We meet ordinary folk including Benson's family and childhood friends as well as legendary religious thinkers as Henri Nouwen Some of the stories particularly the ones about his own brother's suicide are heartbreakingly painful others bring to light the joy and grace of Christian love as found in acts of common worship and compassion Although Benson acknowledges that there are and always will be very real differences in the ways that Christians seek to live out their faith he reminds us of the essential beliefs that we share about God and our common dependency on God's mysterious mercy and grace even as we look for God as through a glass darkly In poetic prose that is reminiscent of the writing of Frederick Buechner and Annie Dillard Benson illuminates with wit and wisdom and humility and passion one of the most difficult challenges that face the Church The Body Broken is a powerful important examination of the intolerance and divisiveness that have become an all too familiar part of the Church and a gentle poignant call for a Christian community that embraces a spirit of love and unity even as it honors our differences

Marianne Farningham Linda Wilson, 2008-07-01 Marianne Farningham has been called one of the most influential female members of the nineteenth century Baptist community yet her name a familiar one in evangelical households during the later nineteenth century is virtually unknown to us today Marianne who wrote for the Christian press over a period of fifty years both reflected and shaped aspects of popular Nonconformity through her poetry prose and biographies She covered topics as varied as the theology of hell and votes for women This investigation explores major aspects of Marianne s many faceted life and thought and discusses her views of women s roles her educational work her public life for example as a popular lecturer and her spirituality Informed by Marianne s life and writings it challenges a number of stereotypes of Victorian evangelicalism including assumptions about evangelical women and the relationship between Evangelicalism and feminism It is a significant contribution to the history of Victorian Nonconformity
