Curriculum Renewal for Islamic Education Nadeem A. Memon, Mariam Alhashmi, Mohamad Abdalla, 2021-05-10 This book demonstrates why and how it is necessary to redesign Islamic Education curriculum in the K 12 sector globally From Western public schools that integrate Muslim perspectives to be culturally responsive to public and private schools in Muslim minority and majority contexts that teach Islamic studies as a core subject or teach from an Islamic perspective the volume highlights the unique global and sociocultural contexts that support the disparate trajectories of Islamic Education curricula Divided into three distinct parts the text discusses current Islamic education curricula and considers new areas for inclusion as part of a general renewal effort that includes developing curricula from an Islamic worldview and the current aspirations of Islamic education globally By providing insights on key concepts related to teaching Islam case studies of curriculum achievements and pitfalls and suggested processes and pillars for curriculum development contributors present possibilities for researchers and educators to think about teaching Islam differently This text will benefit researchers doctoral students and academics in the fields of secondary education Islamic education and curriculum studies Those interested in religious education as well as the sociology and theory of religion more broadly will also enjoy this volume The Oxford Handbook of American Islam Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, Jane I. Smith, 2014 In this volume 30 of the field's top scholars examine historical and contemporary aspects of American Islam and explore the meaning of religious identity in the context of race ethnicity gender and politics Islamic Studies Mansur Ahmad, Husain A. Nuri, 2011 The Crucifix on Mecca's Front Porch David Pinault, 2018-08-22 This book on Islam has an unusual perspective It argues that a critically minded examination of Islam can help Christians achieve a deeper appreciation of the unique truths of their own faith It draws on the author's personal experiences living in Islamic countries and his fieldwork with persecuted Christian minority communities especially in Pakistan Yemen Egypt and Indonesia It includes the author's own original translations of Islamic texts in Arabic Persian and Urdu as well as primary source materials in Latin that were written by Christian participants in the Crusades The author focuses on Muslim interactions with the Christian tradition He examines and takes issue with the misguided approach of those Christians and Muslims who in the interests of Christian Muslim rapprochement minimize theological differences between the two faiths especially in the area of Christology Such attempts at rapport he writes do a profound disservice to both religions Illustrating the Muslim view of Christ with Islamic polemical texts from the eleventh to the twenty first centuries the author draws on Hans Urs von Balthasar and other theologians of kenotic Christology to show how Islamic condemnations of divine weakness and neediness can deepen our appreciation of what is most uniquely Christian in our vision of Jesus as God made man who voluntarily experiences weakness suffering and death in solidarity with all human beings Both timely and urgently needed The Crucifix on Mecca s Front Porch invites readers to reflect on the stark differences between Christianity and Islam and to appreciate the uniqueness of the Christian faith
