Models and Methods for Youth and Young Adult Ministry Arthur David Canales, 2018-05-25 Models and Methods for Youth and Young Adult Ministry is a rare book on young adult and youth ministry in that it weaves sound theology and solid pastoral practice It invites pastoral practitioners scholars in the field and university ministry students to envision various models and methods for doing youth and young adult ministry in a collaborative and ecumenical way Through rich concrete examples and strategies the reader will grasp the significance of each model and the various methods to integrate and implement these robust approaches The result is this book will empower readers toward a more meaningful understanding of youth and young adult ministry which will in turn engage the young church of Christ Teaching in Themes Deborah Meier, Matthew Knoester, Katherine Clunis D'Andrea, 2015 How do teachers and schools create meaningful learning experiences for students with diverse skills abilities and cultures How can teachers authentically assess the learning of their students and build on their strengths and interests in ways that enrich the larger community How can schools be turned into places where everyone is learning from each other These are the big questions that guide the work of teachers at the well known Mission Hill School in Boston and that are addressed in this book Teaching in Themes will help schools incorporate a whole school theme based curriculum that engages students across grade levels K 8 The authors provide detailed descriptions of four thematic units What's Baking Learning Together About Bread and Bakeries The Impact of Nature and Play The Struggle for Justice U S History Through the Eyes of African Americans and Astronomical Inquiries Readers will see how teachers and students design emergent inquiries within the themes and create artwork music presentations and a variety of hands on learning experiences that support differentiated instruction across the curriculum Book Features Examples of whole school projects designed to create a deep sense of immersion in a curricular theme and to build a multi age learning community Details of how teachers developed rich curriculum tailored to their unique students The insights of legendary educator Deborah Meier on how whole school thematic units were used to encourage collaboration among teachers An afterword by teachers and film makers about the thinking behind their work featured in the widely viewed film series A Year at Mission Hill The schools Deborah Meier created in New York and Boston are outstanding examples of democratic education in action I will never forget the first time I visited one of Deborah's schools in East Harlem and saw the joy and curiosity on the faces of children and teachers alike I took time then to carefully describe the school's practices including its portfolio based assessment system because I believed the word needed to be spread I still do Happily this new book from Deborah and her colleagues at the Mission Hill School adds to the literature on creative and collaborative teaching and on building trusting and powerful learning communities Linda Darling Hammond Charles E Ducommun Professor of Education Stanford University Here is a book that shatters the prevailing definition of a good school as one with high test scores Teaching in Themes makes clear the often hidden fact that there are many kinds of good schools for children adults and a democratic society past and present Experienced teachers tell a fascinating story about Boston s Mission Hill School its goals curriculum classroom lessons and assessments that will knock the socks off many true believers in only one kind of a good school Larry Cuban Professor Emeritus of Education Stanford University Real student engagement is not the result of entertaining instruction it is borne from students being passionate about their own learning about becoming young experts This book gives a behind the scenes look at Mission Hill a remarkably successful public school where the quality of student thinking and student work takes precedence over test scores and where thematic learning builds powerful intellectual bridges within classrooms and across the school Ron Berger chief academic officer Expeditionary Learning Annual Register University of Chicago,1913 Catalogue and Announcements University of the South,1902 Circular of Information University of Chicago,1918 Community Schools in Action Joy G. Dryfoos,Jane Quinn,Carol Barkin,2005-03-24 A community school differs from other public schools in important ways it is generally open most of the time governed by a partnership between the school system and a community agency and offers a broad array of health and social services It often has an extended day before and after school features parent involvement programs and works for community enrichment How should such a school be structured How can its success be measured Community Schools in Action Lessons from a Decade of Practice presents the Children s Aid Society s CAS approach to creating community schools for the 21st century CAS began this work more than a decade ago and today operates thirteen such schools in three low income areas of New York City Through a technical assistance center operated by CAS hundreds of other schools across the country and the world are adapting this model Based on their own experiences working with community schools the contributors to the volume supply invaluable information about the selected program components They describe how and why CAS started its community school initiative and explain how CAS community schools are organized integrated with the school system sustained and evaluated The book also includes several contributions from experts outside of CAS a city superintendent an architect and the director of the Coalition for Community Schools Co editors Joy Dryfoos an authority on community schools and Jane Quinn CAS s Assistant Executive Director of Community Schools have teamed up with freelance writer Carol Barkin to provide commentary linking the various components together For those interested in transforming their schools into effective child and family centered institutions this book provides a detailed road map For those concerned with educational and social policy the book offers a unique example of research based action that has significant implications for our society
