Harper's New Monthly Magazine Henry Mills Alden, 1851 Harper's informs a diverse body of readers of cultural business political literary and scientific affairs Afro-Realisms and the Romances of Race Melissa Daniels-Rauterkus, 2020-04-15 Winner of the SAMLA Studies Award Honorable Mention for the MLA William Sanders Scarborough Prize From the 1880s to the early 1900s a particularly turbulent period of U S race relations the African American novel provided a powerful counternarrative to dominant and pejorative ideas about blackness In Afro Realisms and the Romances of Race Melissa Daniels Rauterkus uncovers how black and white writers experimented with innovative narrative strategies to revise static and stereotypical views of black identity and experience In this provocative and challenging book Daniels Rauterkus contests the long standing idea that African Americans did not write literary realism along with the inverse misconception that white writers did not make important contributions to African American literature Taking up key works by Charles W Chesnutt Frances E W Harper Pauline Hopkins William Dean Howells and Mark Twain Daniels Rauterkus argues that authors blended realism with romance often merging mimetic and melodramatic conventions to advocate on behalf of African Americans challenge popular theories of racial identity disrupt the expectations of the literary marketplace and widen the possibilities for black representation in fiction Combining literary history with close textual analysis Daniels Rauterkus reads black and white writers alongside each other to demonstrate the reciprocal nature of literary production Moving beyond discourses of racial authenticity and cultural property Daniels Rauterkus stresses the need to organize African American literature around black writers and their meditations on blackness but she also proposes leaving space for nonblack writers whose use of comparable narrative strategies can facilitate reconsiderations of the complex social order that constitutes race in America With Afro Realisms and the Romances of Race Daniels Rauterkus expands critical understandings of American literary realism and African American literature by destabilizing the rigid binaries that too often define discussions of race genre and periodization The Captive Wife Fiona Kidman, 2010-05-01 Based on real events this prize winning novel is the compelling story of a marriage of love and duty and the quest for freedom in a pioneering age When Betty Guard steps ashore in Sydney in 1834 she meets with a heroine's welcome Her survival during a four month kidnapping ordeal amongst Taranaki Maori is hailed as nothing short of a miracle But questions about what really happened slowly surface within the lite governing circles of the raw new town of Sydney Jacky Guard ex convict turned whaler had taken Betty as his wife to his New Zealand whaling station when she was fourteen After several years and two children the family is returning from a visit to Sydney when their barque is wrecked near Mount Taranaki A battle with local Maori follows and Betty and her children are captured Her husband goes to seek a ransom but instead England engages in its first armed conflict with New Zealand Maori when he is persuaded to return with two naval ships After her violent rescue Betty's life amongst the tribe comes under intense scrutiny Kingdom Under Glass Jay Kirk, 2010-10-26 A sweeping historical narrative of the life of Carl Akeley the famed explorer and taxidermist who changed the way Americans viewed the conservation of the natural world During the golden age of safaris in the early twentieth century one man set out to preserve Africa s great beasts In this epic account of an extraordinary life lived during remarkable times Jay Kirk follows the adventures of the brooding genius who revolutionized taxidermy and created the famed African Hall we visit today at New York s Museum of Natural History The Gilded Age was drawing to a close and with it came the realization that men may have hunted certain species into oblivion Renowned taxidermist Carl Akeley joined the hunters rushing to Africa where he risked death time and again as he stalked animals for his dioramas and hobnobbed with outsized personalities of the era such as Theodore Roosevelt and P T Barnum In a tale of art science courage and romance Jay Kirk resurrects a legend and illuminates a fateful turning point when Americans had to decide whether to save nature to destroy it or to just stare at it under glass The Quotable Darwin Janet

Browne,2025-02-11 A treasure trove of illuminating and entertaining quotations from the legendary naturalist Here is Charles Darwin in his own words the naturalist traveler scientific thinker and controversial author of On the Origin of Species the book that shook the Victorian world Featuring hundreds of quotations carefully selected by world renowned Darwin biographer Janet Browne The Quotable Darwin draws from Darwin s writings letters to friends and family autobiographical reminiscences and private scientific notebooks It offers a multifaceted portrait that takes readers through his youth the famous voyage of the Beagle the development of his thoughts about evolution his gradual loss of religious faith and the time spent turning his ideas into a well articulated theory about the natural origin of all living beings a theory that dangerously included the origin of humans The Quotable Darwin also includes many of the key responses to Darwin s ideas from figures across the social spectrum scientists and nonscientists alike and criticism too We see Darwin as an innovative botanist and geologist an affectionate husband and father and a lively correspondent who once told his cousin that he liked to play billiards because it drives the horrid species out of my head This book gives us an intimate look at Darwin at work at home as a public figure and on his travels Complete with a chronology of Darwin s life by Browne The Quotable Darwin provides an engagingly fresh perspective on a remarkable man who was always thinking deeply about the natural world

Ezra Pound and Europe Richard A. Taylor,Claus Melchior,2023-10-16 The papers included were selected from those given at the 14th international Ezra Pound Conference held at Brunnenburg Tirolo di Merano 16 18 July 1991 The guiding principle for organizing the volume was thematic coherence and quality of thought as well as presentation The articles are gathered under five headings General Impressions Traditional Affiliations Contemporary Connections Constructing Continuities and Specific Texts The exhibitions accompanying the conference are represented and Pound s involvement with Europe is reflected in studies of his relationship with traditional authors as well as his contemporaries Larger considerations and analysis is offered in Section Four and Cathay Cantos LXXIII and Drafts and Fragments are given individual attention

Anne Sexton Anne Sexton,2016-04-05 A revealing collection of letters from Pulitzer Prize winning poet Anne Sexton

While confessional poet Anne Sexton included details of her life and battle with mental illness in her published work her letters to family friends and fellow poets provide an even more intimate glimpse into her private world Selected from thousands of letters and edited by Linda Gray Sexton the poet s daughter and Lois Ames one of her closest friends this collection exposes Sexton s inner life from her boarding school days through her years of growing fame and ultimately to the months leading up to her suicide Correspondence with writers like W D Snodgrass Robert Lowell and May Swenson reveals Sexton s growing confidence in her identity as a poet as she discusses her craft publications and teaching appointments Her private letters chart her marriage to Alfred Mayo Sexton from the giddy excitement following their elopement to their eventual divorce her grief over the death of her parents her great love for her daughters balanced with her frustration with the endless tasks of being a housewife and her persistent struggle with depression Going beyond the angst and neuroses of her poetry these letters portray the full complexities of the woman behind the art passionate anguished ambitious and yearning for connection
