Crisis Style Michael Dango,2021-11-16 In this expansive and provocative new work Michael Dango theorizes how aesthetic style manages crisis and why taking crisis seriously means taking aesthetics seriously Detoxing filtering bingeing and ghosting these are four actions that have come to define how people deal with the stress of living in a world that seems in permanent crisis As Dango argues they can also be used to describe contemporary art and literature Employing what he calls promiscuous archives Dango traverses media and re shuffles literary and art historical genealogies to make his case The book discusses social media filters alongside the minimalism of Donald Judd and La Monte Young and the television shows The West Wing and True Detective It reflects on the modernist cuisine of Ferran Adri and the fashion design of Issey Miyake And it dissects writing by Barbara Browning William S Burroughs Raymond Carver Mark Danielewski Jennifer Egan Tao Lin David Mitchell Joyce Carol Oates Mary Robison and Zadie Smith Unpacking how the styles of these works detox filter binge or ghost their worlds Crisis Style is at once a taxonomy of contemporary cultural production and a theorization of action in a world always in need of repair Ultimately Dango presents a compelling argument for why we need aesthetic theory to understand what we're doing in our world today
