Sinners Anonymous Jane Doe,2020-01-23 Sinners Anonymous gives us a harsh look at our world that is tainted by sin and how this sin affects us The book allows the reader to participate in an intimate retelling of the narrator's personal story while challenging the reader to confront the sin in his or her own life The narrator gives very clear concise instructions on how to face sin fight sin and put it to death This reformed publication was written from the perspective of a young adult author who is a Christian in an evangelical reformed church The narrator chose to write anonymously due to the sensitive and emotional nature of the narrator's personal story and she wants the focus to be centered around Christ and His beautiful sacrifice He made for His bride the church This story is not for the faint of heart as there are some emotionally triggering details that could potentially be disturbing to some readers specifically those who may have experienced abuse or sexual trauma There is a warning in the book before this section appears should the reader wish to skip it Overall Sinners Anonymous was written to convict us that we should be taking sin more seriously and fighting it more often Should you decide to pick up this book there will be no more excuses as to how you deal with sin in your own life You've been warned Are We Miserable Sinners?, Or, John Blunt, the Changed Man Author of Are we miserable sinners?, Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge (Great Britain), 1876 We Are Sinners with Mercy Bill Huebsch, 2023-08-19
