The Maid-at-arms Robert William Chambers,1902      The Maid-At-Arms: A Novel Robert William Chambers,2020-09-28

After a hundred years the history of a great war waged by a successful nation is commonly reviewed by that nation with retrospective complacency Distance dims the panorama haze obscures the ragged gaps in the pageant until the long lines of victorious armies move smoothly across the horizon with never an abyss to check their triumph Yet there is one people who cannot view the past through a mirage The marks of the birth pangs remain on the land its struggle for breath was too terrible its scars too deep to hide or cover For us the pages of the past turn all undimmed battles brutally etched stand clear as our own hills against the sky for in this land we have no haze to soften truth Treading the austere corridor of our Pantheon we too come at last to victory but what a victory Not the familiar gracious goddess wide winged crowned bearing wreaths but a naked desperate creature gaunt dauntless turning her iron face to the west The trampling centuries can raise for us no golden dust to cloak the flanks of the starved ranks that press across our horizon Our ragged armies muster in a pitiless glare of light every man distinct every battle in detail Pangs that they suffered we suffer The faint hearted who failed are judged by us as though they failed before the nation yesterday the brave are re enshrined as we read the traitor to us is no grotesque Guy Fawkes but a living Judas of to day We remember that Ethan Allen thundered on the portal of all earthly kings at Ticonderoga but we also remember that his hatred for the great state of New York brought him and his men of Vermont perilously close to the mire which defiled Charles Lee and Conway and which engulfed poor Benedict Arnold We follow Gates s army with painful sympathy to Saratoga and there we applaud a victory but we turn from the commander in contempt his brutal selfish shallow nature all revealed We know him We know them all Ledyard who died stainless with his own sword murdered Herkimer who died because he was not brave enough to do his duty and be called a coward for doing it Woolsey the craven Major at the Middle Fort stammering filthy speeches in his terror when Sir John Johnson s rangers closed in Poor who threw his life away for vanity when that life belonged to the land Yes we know them all great greater and less great our grandfather Franklin who trotted through a perfectly cold and selfishly contemptuous French court aged alert cheerful to the end Schuyler calm and imperturbable watching the North which was his trust and utterly unmindful of self or of the pack yelping at his heels Stark Morgan Murphy and Elerson the brave riflemen Spencer the interpreter Visscher Helmer and the Stoners      Voices of the True-hearted ,1846      The Poets of Dumfriesshire Frank Miller,1910      The Church Restored
