Tv Guide New Paltz Ny:

TV Guide, 2003 Television Program Master Index Charles V. Dintrone, 1996 Television history has become one of the hottest areas of research in popular culture Because the field is relatively new and so wide ranging no matter what one is researching much of the relevant material will be found scattered through numerous other works frustrating scholarly progress This work makes the television researcher s job easier by providing a single index to 341 books that include information on 1 002 shows Most of the books deal exclusively with television though some autobiographies biographies Congressional hearings and works on communication and the media are also indexed For a show to be included it must have been carried on NBC CBS ABC or Fox and must have been a series Shows on PBS are generally not included though exceptions have been made for Sesame Street and Mister Rogers Neighborhood Television Variety Shows David M. Inman, 2014-12-03 For the few hundred television viewers in 1946 a special treat on the broadcast schedule was the variety show called Hour Glass It was the first TV program to go beyond talking heads cooking demonstrations and sporting events featuring instead dancers comics singers and long commercials for its sponsor Chase and Sanborn coffee Within two years another variety show Texaco Star Theatre became the first true television hit and would be credited with the sales of thousands of television sets The variety show formula was a staple of television in its first 30 years in part because it lent itself to a medium where everything had to be live and preferably inside a studio Most of the early television stars including Jackie Gleason Milton Berle Sid Caesar Ed Sullivan Red Skelton Dinah Shore and Arthur Godfrey rose to prominence through weekly variety shows In the 1960s major stars such as Jerry Lewis Dean Martin Judy Garland and Danny Kaye were hosting variety shows By the 1970s the format was giving way to sitcoms and dramas but pop music stars Sonny and Cher Tony Orlando and Dawn and Donny and Marie Osmond hosted some of the last of the species This book details 57 variety shows from the 1940s through the 1990s A history of each show is first provided followed by a brief look at each episode Air date guest stars sketches performed and a listing of songs featured are included Demographic Vistas David Marc, 2010-11-24 In Demographic Vistas David Marc shows how we can take television seriously within the humanist tradition while enjoying it on its own terms To deal with the barrage of messages from television s chaotic history Marc adapts tools of theatrical and literary criticism to focus on key personalities and genres in ways that reward serious students and casual viewers alike This updated edition includes a new foreword by Horace Newcomb and a new introduction by the author that discusses the ways in which the nature of television criticism has changed since the book s original publication in 1984 A new final chapter explores the paradox of the diminishing importance of over the air broadcasting during the period of television s greatest expansion which has been brought about by complex technologies such as cable videocassette recorders and online services The Daytime Serials of Television, 1946-1960 Jim Cox, 2024-10-16 The popularity of soap operas on radio made them a natural for the new medium of television where soaps quickly became an audience favorite As television soap operas developed so did the level of sophistication in delivery writing and production This history of television s golden age soaps begins with an overview of earlier serialized entertainments An analysis of early TV soap stars personnel and production follows taking 40 programs into account Ensuing chapters offer in depth treatments of the serials Search for Tomorrow Love of Life The Guiding Light The Secret Storm As the World Turns and The Edge of Night Appendices include chronological and alphabetical directories of period daytime serials and rankings of the durability of programs actors and actresses announcers and sponsors

Comical Co-Stars of Television Robert Pegg,2015-10-05 Although some scholars credit Shakespeare with creating in Henry IV s Falstaff the first second banana character reviving him for Henry IV Part Two most television historians agree that the popular co star was born in 1955 when Art Carney as Ed Norton first addressed Jackie Gleason with a Hey Ralphie boy on The Honeymooners The phenomenon has proved to be one of the most enduring achievements of the American sitcom and oftentimes so popular that the co star becomes the star Twenty nine of those popular co stars get all of the attention in this work Each chapter focuses on one television character and the actor or actress who brought him or her to life and provides critical analysis biographical information and in several instances interviews with the actors and actresses themselves It includes people like Art Carney of The Honeymooners Don Knotts of The Andy Griffith Show Ted Knight of The Mary Tyler Moore Show Max Baer of The Beverly Hillbillies Vivian Vance and William Frawley of I Love Lucy Ann B Davis of The Brady Bunch Jamie Farr of M A S H Ron Palillo of Welcome Back Kotter Jimmie Walker of Good Times Tom Poston of Newhart and Michael Richards of Seinfeld to name just a few

"From Beautiful Downtown Burbank" Hal Erickson,2015-07-11 Rowan and Martin s Laugh In was one of the most unusual programs on television defying definition as simply comedy variety or burlesque The show had audiences laughing for six seasons and continues to make appearances in revivals reunions and salutes This critical history of Laugh In includes background details on the creation and creators as well as information on lookalike shows An appendix contains a complete program history with principal production credits and episode guides

How to Read a Film James Monaco,1981 Now thoroughly revised and updated the book discusses recent breakthroughs in media technology including such exciting advances as video discs and cassettes two way television satellites cable and much more

Television in Black-and-white America Alan Nadel,2005 La couverture indique Alan Nadel s new book reminds us that most of the images on early TV were decidedly Caucasian and directed at predominantly white audiences Television did not invent whiteness for America but it did reinforce it as the norm particularly during the Cold War years Nadel now shows just how instrumental it was in constructing a narrow conservative and very white vision of America During this era prime time TV was dominated by adult Westerns with heroes like The Rebel s Johnny Yuma reincarnating Southern values and Bonanza s Cartwright family reinforcing the notion of white patriarchy programs that Nadel shows bristled with Cold War messages even as they spoke to the nation's mythology America had become visually reconfigured as a vast Ponderosa crisscrossed by concrete highways designed to carry suburban white drivers beyond the moral challenge of racism racial poverty and increasingly vocal civil rights demands Violence in Video Games United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Telecommunications and Finance, 1994 Reality Squared James Friedman, 2002 Reality based television has come to play a major role in both production decisions and network strategy This text examines the representation of reality within the televisual viewing frame as well as the exponential growth of these programmes The Stuff of Spectatorship Caetlin Benson-Allott, 2021-04-06 Film and television create worlds but they are also of a world a world that is made up of stuff to which humans attach meaning Think of the last time you watched a movie the chair you sat in the snacks you ate the people around you maybe the beer or joint you consumed to help you unwind all this stuff shaped your experience of media and its influence on you The material culture around film and television changes how we make sense of their content not to mention the very concepts of the mediums Focusing on material cultures of film and television reception The Stuff of Spectatorship argues that the things we share space with and consume as we consume television and film influence the meaning we gather from them This book examines the roles that six different material cultures have played in film and television culture since the 1970s including video marketing branded merchandise drugs and alcohol and even gun violence and shows how objects considered peripheral to film and television culture are in fact central to its past and future The Women Who Made Television Funny David C. Tucker, 2015-03-26 Most of the bright and talented actresses who made America laugh in the 1950s are off the air today but their pioneering Hollywood careers irrevocably changed the face of television comedy These smart and sassy women successfully negotiated the hazards of the male dominated workplace with class and humor and the work they did in the 1950s is inventive still by today's standards Unable to fall back on strong language shock value or racial and sexual epithets the female sitcom stars of the 1950s entertained with pure talent and screen savvy As they did so they helped to lay the foundation for the development of television comedy This book pays tribute to 10 prominent television actresses who played lead roles in popular comedy shows of the 1950s Each chapter covers the works and personalities of one actress Lucille Ball I Love Lucy Gracie Allen The George Burns and Gracie Allen Show Eve Arden Our Miss Brooks Spring Byington December Bride Joan Davis I Married Joan Anne Jeffreys Topper Donna Reed The Donna Reed Show Ann Sothern Private Secretary and The Ann Sothern Show Gale Storm My Little Margie and The Gale Storm Show Oh Susanna and Betty White Life with Elizabeth For each star a career sketch is provided concentrating primarily on her television work but also noting achievements in other areas Appendices offer cast and crew lists a chronology and an additional biographical sketch of 10 less familiar actresses who deserve recognition June Cleaver Was a Feminist! Private Screenings Lynn Spigel, Denise Mann, 1992-01-01 Television's Moment Christina von Hodenberg, 2015-07-01 Television was one of the forces shaping the cultural revolution of the 1960s and 1970s when a blockbuster TV series could reach up to a third of a country's population. This book explores television's impact on social change by comparing three sitcoms and their audiences. The shows in focus: Till Death Us Do Part in Britain, All in the Family in the United States and One Heart and One Soul in West Germany. Centered on a bigoted anti-hero and his family. Between 1966 and 1979 they saturated popular culture and managed to accelerate as well as deradicalize value changes and collective attitudes regarding gender roles, sexuality, religion and race

Rochelle Hudson David C. Tucker, 2023-02-22 Rochelle Hudson's career as an actress was planned from the start. Born in 1916 by her ambitious stage mother. Given rigorous dance and musical training as a child, Hudson won her first film contract at the age of 14. A WAMPAS Baby Star in 1931, she co-starred with actors such as W.C. Fields, Henry Fonda, Claudette Colbert, Will Rogers and Fredric March in classic films like Imitation of Life 1934 and Les Misérables 1935. But within a few years she was stuck in B movies and frustrated. Stepping away from Hollywood, Hudson worked as a realtor and a rancher and even did wartime espionage work for the Navy. She continued acting occasionally in Rebel Without a Cause 1955, the TV sitcom That's My Boy 1954-55 and the campy horror film Strait Jacket 1964. A timeless beauty, she was married and divorced four times before her untimely death in 1972 at age 55. Drawing on personal papers, interviews with family and friends and genealogical research, this first account of Rochelle Hudson's life and work depicts a talented and outspoken woman who built a successful career on her own terms. The annotated filmography provides synopses, critical commentary and reviews for nearly 60 feature films.
