Tv Guide Schedule Today:

TV Guide, 2004 TV Guide Stephen F. Hofer, 2006 This book looks at the origins and growth of television through the pages of TV Guide and covers the complete run of this American icon from the first guides in 1953 to the last issue in guide format on October 9 2005 It includes full color reproductions of every cover ever printed and is both a collector's guide with pricing included and a retrospective view of the medium Impact of Television on Children United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce. Subcommittee on Communications, 1976 Finding Life's Lanes Yakov Stul, 2003-10 Humans aren't perfect Sometimes we get sick or behave irrationally with negative consequences Although much of our behavior is guided by various social institutions this formal manner of regulation is less effective than a personally designed system of rational self management At a societal level we eradicated many socially unacceptable behaviors but most of us have not achieved this on a personal level Society entrusts each person to maintain his own personal health but where does he turn to if he needs help preventing a major crisis or correcting destructive behavior The author offers an innovative approach solution rational self management It starts with establishing rules for a rational lifestyle In the beginning the individual may look to someone else's personal experience and adapt it to his own rules In the next stage his actions are analyzed to determine if they comply with the rules he has set These rules are constantly evolving to enhance his behavior Finally implementation of the rules is controlled and results are measured This rational approach to self management helps one avoid behaviors that can have devastating consequences such as drug abuse crime and it improves his health and quality of life Try it You won't regret it Publishing a Newspaper Marjorie Wein Belshaw, 1996 Grade level 4 5 6 7 8 e i s t

Danger Close! Phil Gioia, 2022-06-15 Phil Gioia grew up an army brat during the decades after World War II Drawn to the military he attended the Virginia Military Institute then was commissioned in the U S Army where he completed Jump School and Ranger School Not even a year after college graduation he landed in Vietnam in early 1968 in the first weeks of the Tet offensive which marked a major escalation of the war Leading a platoon in the 82nd Airborne Division Gioia took his paratroopers into the lifting of the siege of Hu where death was always just around the corner and the grisly discovery of mass graves of those executed by the Vietcong during their occupation of the city Wounded he was sent home in April Released from hospital he commanded a paratroop company in the 82nd Airborne in 1968 returning to Vietnam with the hard hitting First Air Cavalry Division a year later this time leading a rucksack company of light infantry Inserted into far flung landing zones Gioia and his men patrolled the jungles and rubber plantations along the Cambodian border looking for a furtive enemy who preferred ambushes to set piece battles and nighttime raids to daylight attacks Danger Close recounts the Vietnam War from the unique boots on the ground perspective of a young officer who served two tours in two different divisions He tells his story thoughtfully straightforwardly and always vividly from the raw emotions of unearthing massacred human beings to the terrors of fighting in the dark with red and green tracers slicing the air Hard to put down and hard to forget Danger Close will remind readers of the best Vietnam memoirs like Guns Up and Baptism The News Media in Puerto Rico Federico A. Subervi-Vélez, Sandra Rodríguez-Cotto, Jairo Lugo-Ocando, 2020-10-27 The News Media in Puerto Rico offers a synopsis as well as a critical analysis of the Island's news media system with emphasis on the political and economic factors that most influence how the media operate The authors also document the impact of Hurricane Maria on the media structures and the changing media landscape given the political economic and colonial strictures Building on interviews with news media professionals the book further presents detailed insights about journalism and journalism education in these times of crises The final chapters include theoretical frameworks and methodological guidelines for the analysis of other colonial post colonial and neo colonial media systems with research recommendations valuable for future studies of the Island's media as well as for cross national comparisons This book will be an essential read for students and scholars interested in learning not only about the Puerto Rican and Latin American mass media but also the media systems of other colonial neo colonial countries

Television Violence United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation,1996 The Politics of Transnational Television Austin Ogunsuyi,2004-05-29 The central focus of this study is to provide an improved basis for articulating the politics of transnational television and its potentials for improving relations among nations In this context the politics of transnational television means the decision making process that determines the degree of freedom of the press tolerated by individual governments and how that could affect broadcasting mode and attitudes toward other nations The motivation for this research stems from a conviction that the cultural imperialism perspective on the nature and modes of transnational television are erroneous and therefore susceptible to a wide and often misleading theoretical assumption with wide ranged implications In reevaluating the concept of cultural imperialism some fundamental questions are raised to determine to what extent its arguments are true Using the elite theory of power in various societies aided by Johan Galtung's model of a global communication in four worlds we see a pattern of global television that suggests a similar motivation underlying media ownership in all societies We acknowledge with the support of a literature review and other data sources the existence of a global systemic order where technology rich nations dominate technology over poor nations But there is also substantial evidence to prove some of the poorer nations exercise some degree of autonomy This makes it more difficult to explain cultural imperialism simply as a relationship where developed and developing nations are arranged in dominant subordinate or top down order Through a strategy of original intent we are able to show the elite in various societies acquire television mainly to satisfy their political economic or social interest Media attitudes therefore are largely the ideological expression of local elite who determines foreign policy

Filmed Television Drama, 1952-1958 William Hawes,2002-01-09 This work examines the change from live to filmed television dramas during the period 1952-1958 and the characteristics and programs that are most associated with filmed television drama. Along with many technical changes that had to be made in the industry in order to convert live television to filmed television came an interesting social one. The American society in general was developing a growing interest in the lives of ordinary people and television moved with them offering more programs that concentrated on the middle and lower classes. Because of the inherent qualities of filming television began to feature more documentary like realism began to broaden its interpretation of traditional romantic escapism to include more outer space and supernatural science fiction began to better fulfill materialistic desires through well designed enjoyable commercials and began to offer the best dramas and most popular personalities often leading viewers to greater self appreciation and richer lives. This work focuses on the important anthology programs and specials that were on the air from 1952 to 1958 such as Kraft Television Theatre, Philco Television Playhouse and The Hallmark Hall of Fame filmed serials like Colgate Theatre, Amos n Andy and I Love Lucy and the challenges of converting from live to filmed television drama.
